JOSEPH ROBBIE

President and Managing General Partner

A favorite poem often recited by Joseph Robbie in banquet speeches may best explain his boundless enthusiasm for new challenges. Robbie quotes an anonymous author of "Ode To Life":

*"He was a very cautious man
Who never romped or played.
He never drank, he never smoked,
Nor even kissed a maid.
And when he up and passed away,
Insurance was denied.
For since he hadn't ever lived,
They claimed he never died."*

Robbie, vigorously superintending one of the most successful National Football League franchises, still at 66 relishes the challenge as much as the achievement. He dips into a seemingly bottomless reservoir of energy.

As president of the Miami Dolphins, he has parlayed cunning and persistence into shaping a championship club. He has weathered the financial chaos of a struggling 1966 expansion team and transformed it into $1.6 million of philanthropy.

"I think that there's often more satisfaction in the struggle than in the accomplishment," Robbie maintains.

Robbie was a Horatio Alger character in Stephen A. Douglas' clothing. He used his lawyer's gift for oratory and debate to promote pro football in a city of loud skeptics. And he utilized the administrative skills he had honed in Minneapolis municipal government to assemble outstanding personnel.

His genius was manifested when he gave Don Shula the head coaching responsibility Feb. 18, 1970. In the years which have followed, every NFL team except Dallas, Minnesota and Pittsburgh has changed coaches, but none of the more than 100 moves has topped Robbie's selection. And the Robbie-Shula alliance was renewed in 1980 extending through the 1983 season.

Now 12 years after the NFL merger, the Dolphins and the Dallas Cowboys are the only teams to have won more than 70 percent of their games. The Dolphins, possessing two Super Bowl trophies, added a sixth AFC East title in 1981. Those one-time misfits, sustained by Robbie's pluck and tenacity, became the only team to qualify for three consecutive Super Bowls.

The goal of NFL superiority was achieved not in the 12 years it required Dallas, nor in the 17 years it took Oakland, but in just seven years for Miami.

And the Dolphins did more than capture the NFL crown. They bejeweled it with 17 perfect stones. An unprecedented record of 17-0 that 1972 season brought the Super Bowl crown to South Florida, and then the Dolphins repeated as champions with a two-year record of 32-2.

But Robbie has insisted that the integrity of his team will never be the price for victory. Robbie demonstrated it in the 1977 scandal which sent Dolphin defensive linemen Don Reese and Randy Crowder to jail for selling cocaine to undercover police.

Robbie swiftly suspended the players despite some critics waving the constitutional presumption of innocence.

"Football players owe a unique obligation to the children who idolize them, to the fans who support them and to the community in which they live," Robbie said.

"I don't believe in winning at all costs. If I thought the two players whom I suspended would make the difference between winning and losing the Super Bowl, I'd still act as I did. We want to win and we're going to win. But we're going to do it in the right way and with the right people."

To which New York Daily News columnist Larry Fox responded, "... the Joe Robbie we prefer to remember in this case is the man who laid his principles on the line of scrimmage soon after the players were arrested."

Robbie, a former South Dakota legislator and Minneapolis lawyer, had to overcome a virtual embargo on pro football in Miami imposed by the Orange Bowl Committee and the University of Miami as well as adverse sentiment among American Football League owners who preferred Atlanta for 1966 expansion.

"The Miami Dolphins broke the old bugaboo by proving that South Florida is a big-league community," Miami Herald columnist Charles Whited wrote. "It took a born crapshooter such as Joe Robbie, of course, to risk everything on the high stakes. When the Dolphins started, even the best banking brains in Miami refused to share Joe Robbie's brash confidence. But he paved the way; the two world championships galvanized this town like nothing before or since; and we yearn for a return to those halcyon days."

In 1965, a client Robbie met on a Florida vacation was interested in an AFL expansion franchise for Philadelphia. Robbie inquired of AFL Commissioner Joe Foss, a classmate of Robbie's at the University of South Dakota and a colleague in the state legislature.

"He (Foss) told me the stadium was in litigation in Philadelphia," Robbie recalls. "He said there would be a good chance of getting a team for Miami but not for Philadelphia."

"I told my client, and he wasn't interested in Miami. So I decided to apply for the franchise there. The rest is history."

Robbie contacted entertainer Danny Thomas, whom he had known since 1959 while serving on the Board of Directors of St. Jude's Hospital in Memphis. That Lebanese coalition then filed a formal application and was awarded an AFL franchise for a $7.5 million fee.

In the first two years of the franchise, the Dolphins averaged only 25,551 and 27,120 tickets sold and struggled with 29,963 and 32,335 averages the following two years. On the field, the Dolphins managed a 15-39-2 record; off the field, one of the limited partners negotiated a move to Seattle until Robbie recruited five Miami investors in 1969 and strengthened the team's roots in the community.

"If we hadn't been persistent and hadn't been patient; if we hadn't looked down the tunnel and hadn't seen the light, this franchise might have moved," Robbie said. "I didn't intend to move and I didn't appreciate constantly having to deny we weren't here to stay."

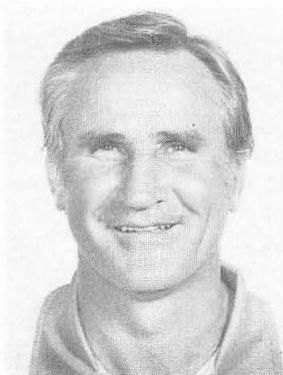

Robbie, who fathered 11 children, was personally responsible for the club's debts and obligations and had "no oil wells or hotel chains or inherited money with which to support professional football in Miami," he said. So he adroitly wielded his power to use the franchise as collateral.

Robbie was obsessed with the goal of a championship team, as the Pulitzer Prize-winning author James A. Michener

DONALD F. SHULA

Head Coach

"Good coaches are supposed to have a play for every situation, even when it seems to be an impossible situation. Don Shula had an answer . . . And the play was typical of the (1981) Dolphin season. It revolved around resourcefulness, discipline and preparation, not any superhuman effort."

—John Crittenden, Miami News sports editor, describing flea-flicker TD pass in 1981 playoff game.

His formula for winning contains those fundamental elements of organization, preparation and discipline. His coach-to-athlete relationship, whose components are abiding respect and mutual dedication to excellence, serves as the catalyst.

Don Shula succeeds not only because he possesses such competitive zeal but also because his players embrace it. Shula conquers adversity not only because he improvises so skillfully but also because his players absorb the teaching preparation.

"Certain people almost have an aura," former Dolphin defensive back Tim Foley said. "You can feel intensity from them, Shula has got total commitment to his goals and objectives. The thing that makes him successful is the ability to transfer that commitment to his players."

In profile, Shula's face has a chiseled magnificence. It was carved through 19 years as a National Football League coach—carved as deeply as his will to win.

The record is there for historians. But your eye interprets Don Shula as he stirs restlessly along the sideline. Exorting all. Deliberating. Instructing. Always pacing. And when he stops—his arms locked across his chest, those eyes powerful as lasers, that anvil of a jaw—he stands as the unshakeable commander.

Shula was voted Coach of the Decade by the Pro Football Hall of Fame's 25-member selection committee. His uncanny ability to overcome obstacles, and not the weight of championship trophies, tipped the balloting in his favor.

He became only the fourth coach in NFL history to win 200 games, and he marches into 1982 with a record 204-83-6. His career winning percentage of .706 is the best among the NFL's all-time 10 winningest coaches, and the perfect 17-0 mark by the 1972 Dolphins remains a monument to Shula. Probably no team will surpass the incredible 32-2 combined record of 1972 and 1973 with two Super Bowl conquests.

With teams in Baltimore and Miami, Shula has built five unbeaten streaks of 10 or more games, and no other coach has done it more than twice. His 69.5 percent winning in 12 seasons in Miami (131-57-2) parallels his 72.8 percent success in Baltimore (73-26-4) from 1963 to 1969.

By winning the AFC East title in 1981, the Dolphins have either won or shared first place in the division nine time in the 12 years under Shula. His Dolphins have been almost invincible at the Orange Bowl with a 75-18-1 record (81.2 percent) including an NFL-record 31-game winning streak at home from 1971 to 1974.

Shula, 52, attacks new challenges like guiding one of the NFL's youngest teams to an 11-4-1 record and division championship in 1981. He drills for precision in every practice, and his methods eliminate errors—the Dolphins have been the least-penalized team in the NFL for six consecutive years including 1981.

Shula has made a mark on the game as an innovator of defensive complexities and situation substitutions, and he has a reputation as a great motivator. Certainly, other coaches can develop brilliant strategy and deliver rousing speeches at halftime. But Shula surpasses the rest in his skill as a teacher.

"If he'd started in chemistry or mathematics," Dolphins owner Joseph Robbie says of Shula, "I think he'd be the best in the business. He can explain things simply, and then through repetition, transfer his knowledge to people as well as anybody."

Twice with the Dolphins, in 1970 and 1977, Shula has deployed five rookies in his starting defense and won 10 of 14 games each season. And for those exigencies brought on by injuries to his starting quarterback, Shula has more solutions. Backup quarterbacks for Dolphins had a 25-7-1 record under Shula since 1970.

He cultivates a winning attitude in preseason success which measures 78-21-3 (78 percent) including 32-4-1 at Baltimore and 46-17-2 at Miami.

He had been the youngest head coach, 33, in NFL history when the Colts picked him in 1963 after Shula's three years as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions. In the old NFL, the Colts reached the title game in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, and the 1967 Colts posted an 11-1-2 record. Those three powerhouse teams averaged scoring almost 30 points per game.

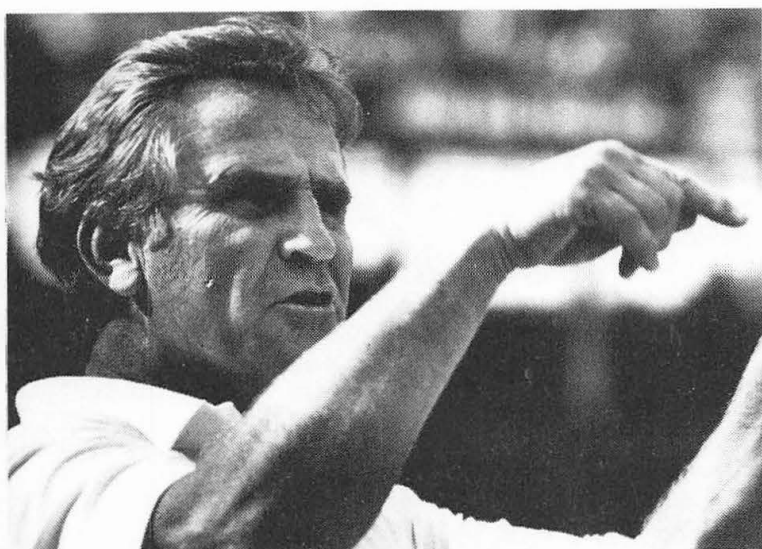

Shula's resourcefulness is best documented in 1965 when injuries sidelined Colts quarterback John Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, so that halfback Tom Matte wore the "playbook" on his wristband and directed a 20-17 upset at Los Angeles.

He transformed a 3-10-1 Dolphin team into a playoff qualifier his first season in Miami and laid the foundation for a perennial contender. In 1971, the Dolphins won their first of four consecutive AFC East titles, and on Christmas Day in Kansas City, pro football's longest game (82 minutes, 40 seconds) ended with Garo Yepremian's winning 37-yard field goal in the second overtime. A week later, the Dolphins stymied the Unitas-led Colts, 21-0, on the same Poly-Turf where Baltimore had won Super Bowl V the previous January.

Dethroning the Colts launched the Dolphins to three consecutive AFC championships—a feat unequalled in either conference since the 1970 merger. But a disappointing 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI filled Shula and his players with greater drive, and in 1972, the Dolphins attracted headlines as the "Greatest Team Ever."

Shula had claimed 38-year old Earl Morrall from the waiver list in April 1972, recalling Morrall's leadership of the 1968 Colts. When quarterback Bob Griese suffered a broken ankle in the fifth game, Morrall took charge for 11 straight victories. The Dolphins rewrote the NFL rushing record (2,960 yards), and with a regular-season record of 105-30-5, Shula became the first NFL coach to win 100 games in his first decade.

Surprisingly, the unbeaten Dolphins were three-point underdogs to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. Shula elected to go with a healthy Griese, and the Dolphins dominated the Redskins, 14-7, for the coach's first NFL crown.

Don Shula captured 200th victory in 1981.

No less impressive were the 1973 Dolphins, losing only twice in 17 games. The Dolphins set a modern NFL record by allowing only 1,290 yards passing and only five touchdown passes, and they overwhelmed three playoff opponents, 85-33, including a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl VIII.

Only twice have Shula's Dolphins failed to win 10 games in a season, and they have qualified for the playoffs eight times in 12 seasons. Only twice have his Dolphins ranked lower than sixth in NFL scoring defense.

"No matter what people are saying, you've got to go out and do it yourself," Shula reminds his players. "You don't win games because you're favored, and you don't lose games because you're the underdog. It's what happens on game day that counts. You've got to think positively and do the things that are necessary to win."

Donald Francis Shula was born January 4, 1930 in Grand River, Ohio and raised in Painesville, Ohio. He was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950, he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula was the line rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951 until Shula's college teammate Carl Taseff joined the Browns at midseason. Both were involved in a 15-player trade with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season in Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards.

Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959), and he joined the NFL's Detroit Lions in 1960 under Coach George Wilson—a man he later replaced in Miami. The Lions posted a 26-13-1 record with Shula as the defensive coordinator.

Then in 1963 he succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach at Baltimore, and in the 19 seasons which have followed, Shula has reached the championship game five times with two victories.

Today he takes an active role in NFL leadership, serving since 1975 on the select four-man NFL Competition Committee. Improved safety in pro football has become a major goal for this committee, which evaluates changes in playing rules.

As consumed as he is by football, Shula remains a devoted family man. He and the former Dorothy Bartish, married July 19, 1958, have five children—two boys and three girls, David 23, Donna 21, Sharon 20, Annie 18, and Michael 17.

David Shula, the 1977 salutatorian at Hollywood Chaminade High, broke all pass receiving records at Dartmouth College. In three seasons, the Dartmouth co-captain caught 133 passes for 1,822 yards and nine touchdowns. He succeeded as a free-agent wide receiver with Baltimore in 1981 and led the Colts in punt returns.

"He's never pressured me at all to do anything, whether it was baseball or soccer or football or whatever," David Shula says of his father. "It was always my own initiative. If I was interested in it, then my dad would always say, 'If you want to do it, that's great; but give it your all and don't come out a quitter. You can't always come out a winner, but you can always give it your best.' "

J. MICHAEL ROBBIE

Exec. Vice President and General Manager

9th Season with Dolphins

J. Michael Robbie, now in his fourth year as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Dolphins, has become involved in the day-to-day administration of the front office.

The younger Robbie, a law graduate of the University of South Dakota, has varied responsibilities which include all aspects of the franchise from contractual arrangements to financial management. He has the legal training and business background which have become essential in modern sports management.

Michael, 34, was named to his position in October 1978. His projects have included the implementation of a computer system for all Dolphin operations from ticket accounts to scouting. He gained a working knowledge of the business aspects of pro football in four years in the Dolphins' ticket office, from September 1971 to July 1975, serving as Ticket Director the last two years.

He has represented the Dolphins at NFL meetings since 1980.

"All of us get a day older every day, so we have to plan for the future of our family," Joseph Robbie says. "I'm pleased that Michael is able to fit himself into the management of the Dolphins and the handling of family affairs. Mike is going to take a leadership role in guiding the younger members of our family."

Michael, the fourth-oldest of 11 Robbie children, was born Jan. 6, 1948 in Mitchell, S.D. He was raised in Minneapolis when the family moved there in 1951.

He earned his J.D. and M.B.A. degrees from South Dakota in May 1978, and he was admitted to the South Dakota Bar. He was graduated in 1966 from De LaSalle High in Minneapolis, and he earned his B.S. in mechanical engineering from Notre Dame in 1971.

He and his wife Dwyn live in Miami Shores.

JOE THOMAS

Vice-President

8th Season with Dolphins

Born March 18, 1921

Joe Thomas, who drafted and traded for the talent which produced the Dolphins' championships of the early 1970s, became a club vice president when he returned to the Dolphins in 1981 after a nine-year absence.

Thomas, 61, conducts the negotiation of player contracts, both veterans and rookies, and serves as a club liaison with the Dade-Broward Sports Authority in the planning of a new stadium.

Thomas has spent 23 years in the National Football League including 20 in personnel and management with four different clubs. He stocked two expansion teams as director of player personnel for Minnesota in 1960 and for Miami in 1965—the Vikings were an 8-5-1 success in their fourth season (1964) and the Dolphins reached the Super Bowl in their sixth season (1971) before winning consecutive championships.

Ironically, Thomas missed earning a Super Bowl ring while the players he assembled had a ring on each hand—trade acquisitions Larry Little, Nick Buoniconti and Paul Warfield and draftees Bob Griese, Larry Csonka, Dick Anderson, Jim Kiick, Bill Stanfill and Jake Scott, to name a few.

Thomas had been the Dolphins' first employee, hired Sept. 21, 1965, four months before the American Football League expansion draft. He left Miami in February 1972 following the draft to pursue greater job responsibilities. Five months later, he engineered the franchise exchange between the Los Angeles Rams and Baltimore Colts, thus becoming vice president and general manager of the Colts under Robert Irsay.

He orchestrated a trade for a first-round pick in 1973 and spent it for quarterback Bert Jones—a move which ultimately resulted in three consecutive AFC East titles (1975-77) for the Colts. Football News and The Sporting News honored him as the top NFL executive in 1975.

Thomas later arranged for the purchase of the San Francisco 49ers by DeBartolo Corporation, and he served as vice president and general manager in 1977 and 1978.

Thomas, an end at Ohio Northern (1943) and a Navy veteran, spent six years in college coaching at DePauw (1948-51) and Indiana (1952-53) and earned a master's in education at Indiana. He gained three years of NFL experience as a defensive coach at Baltimore (1954) and Los Angeles (1955-56) and then three years with the Toronto Argonauts (1957-59) of the Canadian Football League before joining the Vikings in April 1960.

He and his wife Judi have a 12-year-old daughter, Paige, and they live in Coral Gables.

SOUTH FLORIDA MEDIA

The Dolphins receive daily coverage by eight newspapers and six TV stations in a three-county area plus frequent coverage by other South Florida media outlets.

Four writers cover the Dolphins on a daily beat—Larry Dorman, Miami Herald; Andy Cohen, Fort Lauderdale News & Sun-Sentinel; Jay Lawrence, Palm Beach Post; and Leo Suarez, Miami News.

South Florida columnists include Edwin Pope and Bob Rubin, Miami Herald; John Crittenden, Miami News; Bernie Lincicome, Fort Lauderdale News & Sun-Sentinel; Steve Hummer, Palm Beach Post; George Cunill, Diario Las Americas; and Ed Plaisted, Hollywood Sun-Tattler. Other regular writers include Mike Janofsky and Gary Long, Miami Herald; Charlie Nobles and Tom Archdeacon, Miami News; Tom Curtis, Dolphin Digest; Fred Goodall, Associated Press; Les Kjos, United Press International; Luis Perez, El Miami Herald; and Bill Pinella, Palm Beach Times.

Miami's TV coverage is the most extensive in the NFL with John Arminio (WTVJ-4), Chuck Dowdle (WPLG-10), Frank Forte (WPLG-10), Jim Gallagher (WPEC-12), Buck Kinniard (WPTV-5), Andy Liscano (WCKT-7), John Loesing (WCIX-6), Chris Myers (WTVJ-4), Bernie Rosen (WTVJ-4), Steve Ruskin (Telsport), Hector Salazar (WLTU-23), Tony Segreto (WTVJ-4), Larry Sugarman (WPLG-10), Lee Webb (WCKT-7) and Dave Willingham (WCKT-7).

BILL ARNSPARGER

Asst. Head Coach, Defense

19th NFL Season, 11th with Dolphins

Born Dec. 16, 1926

Bill Arnsparger has devised the strategies which have kept the Dolphins among pro football's most respected defenses.

Arnsparger's magnificent defense carried the Dolphins to another AFC East crown in 1981 by permitting only four touchdowns in a sweep of the last four games.

In his nine full seasons with the Dolphins (1970-73 and 1977-81), Arnsparger has masterminded a defense which has allowed the fewest points in the National Football League. Under his guidance, the Dolphins have yielded 250 fewer points than Pittsburgh and 395 fewer points than all other AFC teams in those nine years. Miami has ranked first or second in AFC scoring defense seven times including No. 1 in 1981.

Arnsparger, 55, crafted a disciplined defense which has five rookies named to the NFL All-Rookie team in 1977 and nine times didn't allow a touchdown in 1978 and 1979 on the way to the playoffs. In winning the AFC East in 1981, the Dolphins held eight opponents to one touchdown and kept Buffalo out of the end zone in the division title game.

Arnsparger earned the game ball in Super Bowl VIII after the 1973 club permitted only 150 points and set modern NFL records of 1,290 yards passing and five TD passes. That team put together 13 consecutive scoreless quarters.

His association with Don Shula goes back to 1959 as aides at Kentucky, then in 1964-69 at Baltimore and 1970-73 at Miami. Three times in those 10 pro seasons, Arnsparger's charges led the NFL in scoring defense.

He was head coach of the New York Giants for 2½ seasons beginning in 1974 and he rejoined the Dolphins at midseason of 1976. He worked 14 years in college coaching—Miami, Ohio (1950), Ohio State (1951-53), Kentucky (1954-61) and Tulane (1962-63).

Arnsparger was a high school lineman at Paris, Ky., under Blanton Collier, later the head coach (1963-70) of the Cleveland Browns. Arnsparger spent two years as a Marine sergeant before returning to Miami, Ohio, as an offensive tackle under Woody Hayes. In 1976 he was inducted into the Miami University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Currently he is chairman of the 20-member Governor's Sports Council in Florida. He and his wife Betty Jane (married 8-24-57) live in Miami Lakes with their son David (8-6-65) and daughter Mary Susan (2-29-68).

Don Shula on his sideline deportment

I think I've quieted down some as I've gotten more experience. But I'm still very involved and very emotional. . . I want to do the things that brought me this far. You put so much into it; it's natural that it comes out. I'd rather have it come out than be sitting here with ulcers.

WALLY ENGLISH

QB Receivers,
Pass Offense

5th NFL Season, 2nd with Dolphins

Born June 28, 1938

Wally English took charge of the Dolphins' pass offense in 1981 and turned it into the first 3,000-yard production in club history. Both quarterbacks David Woodley and Don Strock registered 400-yard game—the only ones in Dolphin history.

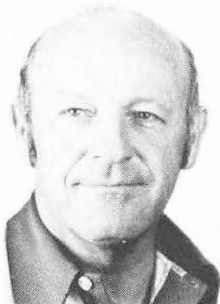

English, whose 16-year coaching career includes three years with the Detroit Lions and service at six major colleges, directed the Dolphins quarterbacks and receivers. He was hired by Don Shula after two seasons as offensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh. The Panthers put together consecutive 11-1 records and, in 1980, ranked second in the nation.

English's high-powered passing game with quarterbacks Dan Marino and Rick Trocano broke Pitt records both years. The Panthers averaged 268 yards passing (fifth in nation) in 1980 and 31 points per game while amassing a record 4,920 yards total offense.

English, 42, had three previous years of NFL coaching experience as the offensive backfield coach with the Lions in 1974, 1975 and 1977. He then coached quarterback Marc Wilson at Brigham Young in 1978 before the Oakland Raiders made Wilson a No. 1 draft choice.

The former University of Louisville quarterback (1956-58) was the successor to John Unitas at his alma mater. English began coaching on the college level as quarterback coach at Kentucky (1965-68) and spent a year as a New Orleans scout and coach for Richmond, Va., in the Continental League. He moved to Arkansas (1970), then Virginia Tech (1971-72) and Nebraska (1973). VPI's Don Strock led the nation in passing in 1972 and was drafted by the Dolphins in 1973.

English and his wife Peggy (married 7-25-59) live in Davie with five sons—Jon (9-24-60), Steve (11-12-61), Danny (6-9-64), Tommy (8-6-67) and Andrew (3-26-81). Jon is a junior quarterback at Iowa State and Steve is a junior defensive back at Indiana.

TOM KEANE

Defensive Backs, Punting

19th NFL Season, 17th with Dolphins

Born Sept. 7, 1926

Tom Keane has seen them all, from Westmoreland to McNeal, from the inception of the Dolphins in 1966 to the sixth AFC East championship in 1981. Keane's aggressive defensive backfield has played a significant role in that success.

In 1981, for example, the Dolphins permitted an average of only 129 yards passing in the four-game sweep to a division crown (NFL teams yielded an average of 204 yards). The AFC East title victory over Buffalo was clinched with two interceptions by safety Mike Kozlowski, a player Keane converted from college running back.

Keane, 56, is one of only three current NFL assistants who have coached with the same club as long as 17 years—Jim Myers (1962-82) and Ernie Stautner (1966-82) of Dallas are the others. The Dolphins have averaged 23 interceptions per year (369) topped by an NFL-leading 32 thefts in 1978.

In Keane's first year, the Dolphins stole 31 passes and ranked second in the American Football League. In 1973 the Super Bowl champions allowed only five touchdown passes.

Keane, a former All-Pro safety for the Baltimore Colts in 1953, holds the Colts record with 11 interceptions that season. He had swiped 10 passes in 1952. He also averaged 42.8 yards punting and he held the ball for Bert Rechichar's 56-yard field goal which stood as an NFL record for 17 years.

He was a freshman quarterback and tailback for unbeaten Ohio State in 1944, and after a 20-month stint as a seaman in the South Pacific, Keane played at West Virginia. He skipped his senior year to be drafted by Los Angeles (1948-51), then was traded to the short-lived Dallas Texans (1952) and went to Baltimore (1953-54) in the franchise move.

Keane played with the Chicago Cardinals (1955) and his career ended with a knee injury suffered while tackling Tank Younger in a 1956 preseason game. He coached with the Cardinals (1957) and the Calgary Stampeders (1960) of the Canadian Football League.

In 1961 he became head coach of the Wheeling Ironmen of the United Football League, and after winning two championships, he moved to Pittsburgh (1965) as an assistant. He joined the Dolphins staff of George Wilson in 1966 and was retained by Shula in 1970.

He and his wife Mary (married 7-5-52) live in Miami and have two daughters, Candi and Mary, and two sons, Tom and Tim. Keane was recently honored by the Ohio Valley's Dapper Dan Club as its Man of the Year along with Philadelphia Eagles assistant Fred Bruney.

JOHN SANDUSKY

Offense, Offensive Line

24th NFL Season, 7th with Dolphins

Born Dec. 28, 1925

John Sandusky, headmaster of the Dolphins' offensive line since 1976, has applied his decades of NFL experience into shaping a formidable troop of blockers.

Sandusky's handiwork was evident in the four-game sweep to the AFC East title in 1981 when guard Ed Newman was the only blocker in the five-man front who also played for the 1979 division champions. Sandusky had developed tackles Jon Giesler and Eric Laakso into solid starters, and guard Jeff Toews and center Dwight Stephenson picked up the slack for injured teammates.

Sandusky's young group has a tough act to follow in the 1980s;

the Dolphins led the NFL in rushing in the 1970s by averaging 2,372 yards per season.

Sandusky, 56, counts 31 years in the NFL including 24 years of coaching—five more than any other Miami assistant. He has the unique distinction of having served in four different capacities in the old College All-Star game in Chicago. He played with the All-Stars (1950) and coached them (Offensive line, 1958); he played with the NFL champions (Cleveland, 1951 and 1955) and coached them (Baltimore offensive line, 1969, and defensive line, 1971).

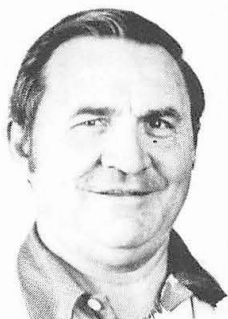

He was the offensive line coach under Don Shula for seven years (1963-69) with Baltimore. In fact, Shula tried to bring Sandusky to Miami in 1970 but the Colts' coaching staff was restricted. Sandusky stayed with the Colts to coach the defensive line (1970-72) with a Super Bowl V victory under Don McCafferty.

Sandusky's first NFL assignment had been the Colts' defensive line (1959-62) under Weeb Ewbank, so he has spent seven years on defense and 17 years on offense.

When McCafferty was fired after a 1-4 start in 1972, Sandusky was elevated to head coach. He posted a 4-5 record including two losses to the unbeaten Dolphins. Sandusky next spent three years (1973-75) with the Philadelphia Eagles' offensive line.

That was a homecoming for the former All-American tackle from Villanova. He went both ways at tackle for Cleveland (1950-55) when the Browns played in six consecutive NFL championship games, winning three titles, and he spent one year with Green Bay (1956). He began his coaching career as a Villanova assistant (1957-58).

He and his wife Ruth (married 3-31-51) live in Cooper City, and they have raised four sons and a daughter—John, James, Ruth, Joey and Gerry. Joey died of complications from pneumonia in 1978 while a sophomore at Tulsa University.

MIKE SCARRY

Run Defense, Defensive Line

16th NFL Season, 13th with Dolphins

Born Feb. 1, 1920

Mike Scarry, whose coaching career has spanned five decades, has tutored a consistently solid defensive line for the Dolphins since 1970. His run defense in the last four seasons (1978-81) surrendered only 47 touchdowns rushing in 64 games, which ranks third-best in the NFL.

Scarry has guided the giants of Dolphin defense including Bill Stanfill, Bob Heinz, Vern Den Herder, Bob Baumhower and Doug Betters. His defenders put a stranglehold on opponents in 1979, keeping nine foes under 100 yards rushing and ranking second in the NFL with a 106.4-yard average yield. The previous highest ranking was third in 1972 with a 110.6-yard average.

In their last three seasons of reaching the playoffs (1978, 1979 and 1981), the Dolphins permitted either none or one touchdown in 27 of 48 regular-season games. The Dolphins have topped 40 quarterback sacks three times under Scarry—45 in 1973, 40 in 1975 and 41 in 1978. Miami also led the NFL with 14 shutouts during the 1970s.

Scarry, 62, was elected to the NAIA Hall of Fame in 1964 in recognition of his playing days as a center and linebacker at Waynesburg (Pa.) College. He played the first game ever televised (Waynesburg vs. Fordham in New York, 1939). After two years in the Army, "Mo" was center for the Cleveland Rams (1944-45) in the old All-America Football Conference.

He began an 18-year college coaching career at Western Reserve (1948-49) and moved to Santa Clara (1950-52), Loras (1953), Washington State (1954-55) and Cincinnati (1956-62) before becoming head coach at Waynesburg (1963-65). His Yellow Jackets posted a record of 17-8-1 including two West Penn Conference titles, and he recruited and developed the Waynesburg squad which went unbeaten and won the NAIA championship in 1966.

Scarry moved into the pro ranks with the Washington Redskins (1966-68) under Otto Graham, and he spent the 1969 season as a scout for San Francisco before joining the Dolphins in 1970.

In 1969 he was named to the Waynesburg College Hall of Fame for both football and basketball.

He and his wife Elizabeth (married 1-27-43) live in Miami and have eight children, five boys and three girls—Sally Beth, Mike, Patricia, Tom, Maggie, John, Jim and Dennis.

CARL TASEFF

Offensive Backs, Special Teams

16th NFL Season, 13th with Dolphins

Born Sept. 28, 1928

Carl Taseff, overseer of the Dolphin offensive backfield since 1970, has developed a versatile corps of runners and receivers. He has coached 11 different Dolphin running backs who have gained more than 500 yards in a season.

Taseff's runners have become more involved in the passing game, averaging 115 catches in the past three seasons compared to an average of 53 catches in the run-dominated years of 1970-77. In that eight-year span, the Dolphins ranked fifth or higher in the NFL rushing seven times.

His young tandem of Tony Nathan and rookie Andra Franklin combined for 1,493 yards rushing and 16 touchdowns en route to the AFC East crown in 1981.

Taseff, 54, scouted Dolphin opponents for three years (1970-72) in addition to his coaching duties. Prior to joining Don Shula's staff, he worked for the CEPO scouting combine in 1968 and 1969.

He had played nine years (1953-61) at left cornerback for the Baltimore Colts, and Taseff set Colt records with a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown Oct. 14, 1956 against Green Bay (four returns for 148 yards). He holds an NFL record with a 99-yard return of a Walt Michaels field-goal attempt Dec. 12, 1959 against Los Angeles. His career marks were 112 punt returns for 826 yards, and he never fumbled a punt.

Taseff starred as a running back at John Carroll University in his native Cleveland and he scored 22 touchdowns in 1950. He and Shula played in the same backfield for Coach Herb Eisele, and they were roommates with the Cleveland Browns (1951-52) and Colts (1953-56).

Taseff concluded his pro career in 1962 with Buffalo of the American Football League, and after a year in the insurance field, he became a defensive coach with the AFL Boston Patriots (1964) and the NFL Detroit Lions (1965-66) under Harry Gilmer.

Taseff and his wife Lucy (married 11-18-78) live in Pembroke Pines. He has two daughters, Cynthia Sue and Susan, by a previous marriage.

CHARLEY WINNER

Dir. of Pro Personnel and Assistant Coach

28th NFL Season, 2nd with Dolphins

Born July 3, 1925

Charley Winner, a veteran of 27 years in the National Football League including two stints as a head coach, brought a quarter century of experience to his Dolphins assignment as Director of Pro Personnel and assistant coach in 1981. He provides scouting reports on Dolphin opponents and analysis of NFL talent in waiver and trade procedures.

Winner, 57, once coached a defensive back named Shula in the mid-1950s at Baltimore. That was the beginning of Winner's 12-year stint (1954-65) as a defensive coach with the Colts, serving under Weeb Ewbank for nine years and under Don Shula for three years.

Winner became head coach at St. Louis (1966-70) where he developed quarterback Jim Hart and had a 1966 defense which set club records which have stood for 15 years—most quarterback sacks (52) and fewest yards rushing (85.1 yards per game). The Cardinals were 35-30 in those five seasons but lost the last three games in 1970 to finish 8-5-1.

He was an assistant at Washington (1971-72) under George Allen and at the New York Jets (1973) under his father-in-law Ewbank before being promoted to head coach. The Jets were 7-7 in 1974 and 2-7 in 1975 under Winner. He coached defensive backs at Cincinnati (1976-79) and worked for a cable TV firm in 1980.

Winner, a radio operator and gunner in the Air Force during World War II, was a halfback at Washington University in St. Louis and graduated in 1949. Before joining Ewbank at Baltimore in 1954, he was an aide at Washington (1948-49) and Case Tech (1950-53).

He and his wife Nancy (married 6-23-50) have two daughters, Cinda and Lisa.

CHUCK CONNOR

Director of Player Personnel

5th Season with Dolphins

Born July 7, 1937

Chuck Connor has developed a reputation as an astute judge of talent while supervising five Dolphins drafts as Director of Player Personnel since 1978.

Altogether 27 players from Connor's first four drafts were still in the Dolphins' training camp at the start of 1982. Those drafts succeeded in rebuilding the offensive line and backfield as well as the defensive secondary, yet during this "youth movement," the Dolphins still won AFC East titles in 1979 and 1981.

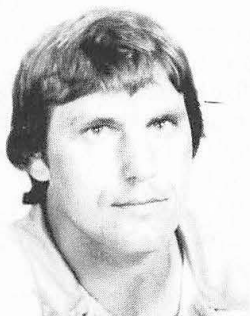

Connor selected 19 players in the first four rounds from 1978 to 1981, and 14 are playing in the NFL (13 with Miami), yet Miami's drafting position was 24th, 24th, 21st and 13th those four years.

Connor, 45, succeeded Bobby Beathard in 1978 after serving as the Southeast regional scout for the BLESTO combine, which provides college player evaluations for nine NFL teams including the Dolphins. Connor had worked for three seasons (1975-77) for BLESTO and was promoted to one of their four regional scout positions in 1977.

He was a two-way end at the University of Cincinnati (1955-59) before he began a 15-year coaching career at Montour High near Pittsburgh. Connor was head coach for eight of those 15 years and his 1967 team was undefeated. He taught at Montour in 1974 while also coaching the defensive secondary at Carnegie-Mellon University.

Connor had done player evaluations from films for the Pittsburgh Steelers while at Montour, and in 1975, he moved his family from McKees Rock, Pa., to Stone Mountain, Ga., near Atlanta to work for BLESTO.

He and his wife Dorothy (married 6-27-59) have four children—Chuck (4-23-60), Mike (1-16-65), Karen (6-20-66) and Scott (7-29-76).

STEVE CROSBY

Assist. Dir. of Player
Personnel and Asst.
Coach, Special Teams

6th Season with Dolphins

Born July 3, 1950

Steve Crosby, the youngest member of the Dolphins' coaching staff, has directed the special teams for the past three seasons in addition to extensive college scouting assignments.

With Crosby's supervision, the Dolphins have ranked among the NFL leaders in punt coverage with a three-year average of 6.75 yards allowed on punt returns (NFL average is 8.2 yards). The two longest punt returns in Dolphin history were logged by Tony Nathan (86 yards in 1979) and Tom Vigorito (87 yards in 1981), and 1981 rookies Vigorito and Fulton Walker, who averaged 24.5 yards on kickoff returns, were among the NFL's best.

Only once in the last six seasons (1976-1981) has a punt or kickoff been returned for a touchdown against the Dolphins.

Crosby, whose career as a New York Giants running back was shortened by injuries, began scouting for the Dolphins in 1977 and was named the Assistant Director of Player Personnel the following year.

Crosby, 32, was a 17th-round draft choice when the Giants picked him in 1974. He appeared in 15 games in three injury-plagued seasons (1974-76) under Bill Arnsparger. He had gained 1,891 yards in two seasons at Fort Hays College in his native

Kansas. Crosby played eight-man football in his hometown Pawnee Rock.

He lives in Plantation and has a son Bradley, 12.

BOB LUNDY

Trainer

16th Season with Dolphins

Born March 28, 1936

Bob Lundy, the original trainer of the Dolphins, has treated injured players for 15 seasons with his assortment of bandages and braces.

A significant reduction in knee injuries has coincided with a vigorous offseason conditioning program organized by Lundy along with pre-practice flexibility drills. In a four-year period from 1975 to 1978, the Dolphins counted 32 knee operations. Now with a winter regimen of weight training and running, the Dolphins lost only six players in the last three seasons to knee surgery.

Lundy, 46, was honored for having mended football wounds when the Dolphins presented him with a game ball after clinching a fourth consecutive AFC East championship in 1974. It may be the only time an NFL trainer has been honored that way.

He came to Miami with the formation of the franchise and has worked every season except 1973 when he sold real estate. He graduated from Boston University in 1958 and was the assistant trainer at Indiana University while in graduate school. He became the head trainer at Detroit University (1960-63) while also serving as assistant trainer of the NFL's Detroit Lions, and in 1964, he became a full-time assistant with the Lions.

He and his wife Alice (married 6-2-62) live in Miami with their three sons Bobby (3-30-63), Billy (6-30-66) and David (1-30-70).

JUNIOR WADE

Assistant Trainer

8th Season with Dolphins

Born Feb. 2, 1947

Junior Wade provides much more than medical treatment as the assistant trainer of the Dolphins. He boosts the morale of injured players by putting himself through the same paces of running and weightlifting during rehabilitation.

Wade, 35, joined the Dolphins in 1975 after coaching Davidson College to its best baseball record (21-15) in history. Wade's team owned a victory over 1975 College World Series runnerup South Carolina.

He had worked in Dolphin preseason camps in 1973 and 1974 while serving as an assistant trainer at Davidson. He was promoted to head baseball coach in 1975.

Wade was a three-year baseball letterman at South Carolina State. After earning a master's degree in education, he became trainer and guidance counselor at Fayetteville State.

He and his wife Constance (married 12-13-70) live in Hialeah with their son Aaron (2-25-72).

DAN DOWE

Equipment Manager

17th Season with Dolphins

Born Sept. 16, 1924

Dan Dowe has been fitting uniforms, customizing helmets and packing trunks of equipment for the Dolphins since the team's inception in 1966. He started as the assistant equipment manager and was promoted to equipment manager in 1969.

His locker-room pranks are legend among Dolphin veterans and a rude awakening among rookies. But it is beloved mischief, and fans and players past and present all turned out to roast Dowe at a 1978 banquet.

Dowe, 58, is a native of Brighton, Mass. He served 4½ years aboard the destroyer USS Forest in World War II, and the ship was hit by a kamikaze plane. As a civilian he worked in industrial electronics in Boston and then as a police officer in Bal Harbour, a Miami Beach suburb.

He and his wife Virginia (married 6-8-57) live in Hollywood Hills with their son Darin (9-14-69).

MILT DAVIS

College Area Scout

5th Season with Dolphins

Born May 31, 1929

Milt Davis, an educator as well as a talent scout, has been evaluating college players in a 14-state West region since 1967. He scouted for Baltimore from 1967 to 1976, for Los Angeles Rams in 1977 and for the Dolphins since 1978.

Davis, 53, who has received his doctorate in administrative education from UCLA, is a counselor and biology professor at Los Angeles City College. He earned an M.A. in zoology from UCLA and is an avid bird-watcher.

Davis played four seasons (1957-60) with the Colts and twice tied for the NFL lead in interceptions, including 10 as a rookie. The Colts defeated the New York Giants twice in title games (1958 and 1959) with Davis at right cornerback, and he had 27 career interceptions.

He and his wife Yvonne live in Los Angeles with their three children Allison (2-19-59) and twins Brian and Hilary (5-21-62).

ELBERT DUBENION

College Area Scout

4th Season with Dolphins

Born Feb. 16, 1935

Elbert Dubenion, an American Football League original with the Buffalo Bills in 1960, joined the Dolphins scouting staff after the 1979 draft. His basic responsibility has been the northern tier of states including the Big Ten and the Big Eight.

Dubenion, 47, nicknamed "Golden Wheels" as the swift flanker in a nine-year career with Buffalo, retired during the 1968 season and devoted the next 10 years to scouting for the Bills.

He possesses Buffalo career receiving records with 296 receptions, 5,034 yards and 35 touchdowns. He also set marks with receptions in 42 consecutive games and TDs in five straight games. In 1964 he grabbed 42 passes for 1,139 yards and 10 touchdowns with quarterback Jack Kemp, and the Bills captured the AFL title.

He and his wife Marilyn (married 6-8-59) live in Westerville, Ohio, near Columbus, with their four daughters—Debbie (3-1-61), Carol (1-8-63), Susan (10-8-65) and Lisa (2-16-67).

"DOLPHINS" WON, FLIPPERS DOWN

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns—none of those other names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a thousand different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonderment for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures in the sea," Joseph Robbie said in announcing the team name Oct. 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphin games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame—it ended a scoreless tie.

DOLPHINS RADIO NETWORK

RICK WEAVER

Rick Weaver, an outstanding play-by-play broadcaster recognized throughout the NFL, will be calling the Dolphins' action for his 12th season in 1982. He is sports director of WIOD (610 AM), which has originated Dolphin broadcasts since the team's inception in 1966. Veteran newsman Henry Barrow and sports analyst Hank Goldberg will provide color commentary.

HANK GOLDBERG

SPANISH BROADCAST BEGINS IN 1982

GEORGE CUNILL

South Florida's populous Latin community will be able to hear Dolphin broadcasts in Spanish for the first time in 1982.

WQBA-FM, known in the trade as Super Q, will originate the Spanish broadcasts. Super Q is located at 108 on the FM dial.

George Cunill, football columnist for Diario Las Americas since 1972, will handle the play-by-play. Cunill has done Dolphin reporting on Super Q for four seasons, and he also publishes Vida de Club, a magazine aimed at Latin club activities.

Cunill will be joined by Rene Giraldo and Eduardo Lujan.

described it in "Sports in America." Michener wrote:

"The majority of owners I have met are like Joe Robbie of Miami, real devotees, men and women to whom the building of a respectable team becomes a passion, and they add luster to the sporting scene . . . In the end, they are willing to make extraordinary sacrifices in order to build a winner, and their loyalty to their team often exceeds that of their players."

Robbie's faith in South Florida was rewarded with fanatical support in the 1970s resulting in an NFL-record 74,961 season tickets in 1973 and 22 consecutive sellouts. In the 12 years since Robbie brought Shula to the helm, the Dolphins have averaged 65,437 tickets sold for 94 dates at the Orange Bowl (excluding preseason games).

Robbie's civic involvement exceeds that of most executives. He works actively on the Board of Trustees for Jackson Memorial Hospital, and he served as president of Catholic Charities for three years.

He also serves on the National Board of Directors of the American Health Foundation and the U.S.O. Other past services by Robbie include the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce, United Way, Boystown, Heart Association and Crippled Children's Society.

He was presented the prestigious Timmie Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington in 1974 for the "extraordinary achievement" by the Dolphins over a four-year period (54-11-1) through three Super Bowl appearances. He was named Pro Football Executive of the Year by the Long Island Athletic Club in 1972, and he was designated Football Man of the Year in 1971 by both the Football News and the Minutemen Club of the Twin Cities. Pop Warner Junior League Football named him Football Father of the Year in 1976 in recognition of his support of charities and educational institutions on a nationwide basis.

He may be the only person ever elected student body president of two colleges—Northern State Teachers College in Aberdeen, S.D., and the University of South Dakota in Vermillion. He founded the South Dakota Student Federation consisting of the student governments of all of South Dakota's colleges and universities and he served as its president both years he was student body president at Northern and USD.

A gifted extemporaneous speaker, he won the National Discussion Debate championship in Chicago in 1940 and earned his law degree from South Dakota in 1946. His education was interrupted by Navy duty during World War II, and he received the Bronze Star for his part in five South Pacific invasions.

Robbie was born July 7, 1916 in Sisseton, S.D. He and his wife Elizabeth, married Dec. 28, 1942, have raised 11 children. Robbie first practiced law in Mitchell, S.D. (1946-51) when he served as Democratic State Chairman, state legislator and 1950 gubernatorial candidate. His family had grown to six children when he moved to Minneapolis in 1951 to become Regional Counsel for the Office of Price Stabilization, and later he directed a four-state area with 500 employees.

He was a charter member of the Twin Cities Metropolitan Planning Commission, and in what ranks alongside his Super Bowl achievements, he drafted the law which created the Minnesota Municipal Commission for which he was chairman from 1959 to 1965.

He has expanded sports in South Florida through his wife Elizabeth, owner of the successful Fort Lauderdale Strikers of the North American Soccer League, and he has drawn his sons Michael, 34, and Tim, 26, into administrative positions with an eye to the future.

'82 Prospects

By BOB KEARNEY
Public Relations Director

As sports literature, it would have made fascinating fiction. The Miami Dolphins of 1981 were rejected by football forecasters, with apologies to the coach. So these underdogs sneaked into October with a 4-0 record, creating a stir among the neighborhood toughs.

Then the underdogs withered under pressure, experiencing a tie and two bitter defeats because of last-minute breakdowns. At 7-4-1 it seemed impossible to win four in a row. So the Dolphins won one in a row—four times.

Now boosted into the playoffs at 11-4-1, they were suddenly dazed by a 24-point blitz in the first quarter. Insurmountable. But these underdogs had struggled and scrapped for 16 weeks, so what was another couple of hours? It was an epic.

In a hole 24 points deep, the Dolphins began clawing their way to the surface. 24-3. 24-10. A perfectly executed flea-flicker on the last play of the first half. 24-17. The underdog was in a dog fight, and it was prolonged into overtime as three potential winning field goals were missed before a fourth try ended the drama.

It was "The miracle that died" as The Miami Herald perceived it, and the saga of the 1981 Dolphins cried for a better ending. That will be the approach of Coach Don Shula and his club in 1982—rewrite that final chapter.

The Dolphins bagged their sixth AFC East title in 12 years under Shula, but the bitter disappointment in the playoffs has challenged Shula's young, well-balanced team. That team accomplished nothing by fluke a year ago.

The Dolphins netted more than 3,000 yards passing for the first time since the schedule was increased to 16 games in 1978. At the same time, the rushing attack ranked fourth in the AFC. An attribute of Shula-coached teams—avoiding careless mistakes—was apparent in that the Dolphins were the least-penalized team in the NFL for the sixth consecutive year and lost the fewest fumbles (10) in the league.

Quarterbacks David Woodley and Don Strock were a unique entry. "Woodstock" was the hybrid of a young, mobile Woodley and a seasoned passer Strock. Shula will capitalize on these complementary talents again in 1981.

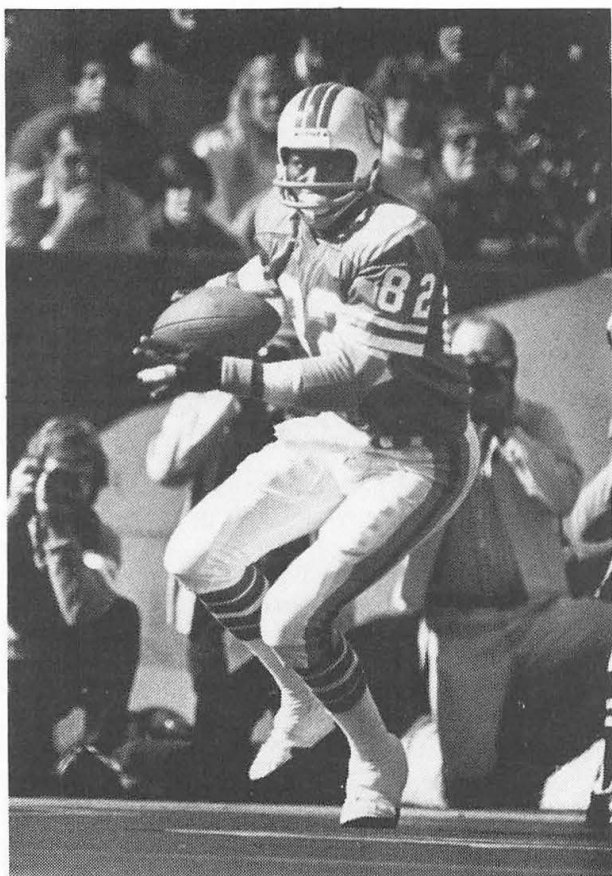

"Both of them contributed heavily to our success in very different ways," Shula said. "If they were similar in ability, you could put it up for grabs and let the best man play. But their talents are so different that we might be better off just trying to utilize the talents of two people, similar to what we do at a lot of other positions."

Shula added, "Woodley obviously has to work on drop-back passing and reading coverage. Strock obviously has to work on evading the pass rush."

Woodley set the Dolphin passing records for attempts (366) and completions (191) in his second season, and his yardage total of 2,470 was only three yards shy of the mark set by Bob Griese in 1968. Woodley passed for a record 408 yards at Dallas only three weeks after he suffered two cracked ribs.

In the pressure of the AFC East championship game, Woodley took charge by scrambling 62 yards on nine carries and firing a touchdown pass in a 16-6 victory over Buffalo. The defending champion Bills never reached the end zone.

Strock contributed five outstanding relief efforts capped by the 403-yard, four-touchdown passing spectacle against San Diego in the AFC playoff. He overcame a 24-0 deficit and outscored the Chargers, 38-7, before the Dolphins bowed in overtime, 41-38.

The Dolphins' most versatile offensive weapon, halfback Tony Nathan, led the NFL with 5.3 yards per carry and became the first player in club history to catch 50 passes in consecutive seasons.

Nathan rang up 1,234 yards—rushing for 782 yards and catching 50 passes for 452 yards. The third-year pro from Alabama, snagged another nine passes for 114 yards in the playoff game.

"Nathan does it all," Shula said. "The only problem is we ask him to do so much and it puts great pressure on him."

Sharing that load in 1981 was Nebraska fullback Andra Franklin, who set a Dolphin rookie rushing mark with 711 yards and eight touchdowns.

Two other runners, rookie Tom Vigorito and trade acquisition Eddie Hill, made big-play contributions when Nathan was nicked by rib and knee injuries. Vigorito also put excitement in punt returns with a record 87-yard touchdown sprint against Pittsburgh and single-season marks for most returns (36) and most yards (379). Both Vigorito and Hill were pass targets coming out of the backfield.

Miami's draft produced three running backs with good credentials—Rich Diana of Yale, Larry Cowan of Jackson State and Mack Boatner of Southeastern Louisiana.

A bonus could come from fullback Woody Bennett, who started six of seven games bridging the 1980 and 1981 seasons. Bennett must recuperate from knee surgery if he is to reclaim the job from Franklin.

Split end Duriel Harris almost entered the first 1,000-yard receiving season into the Dolphin books when a sprained knee curtailed him the last three games of 1981. But Harris was dazzling with 53 receptions for 911 yards, and the acrobatic gamebreaker had five catches over 40 yards.

The Dolphins' all-time leading receiver, ninth-year pro Nat Moore, eclipsed 5,000 yards in 1981 with a virtuoso performance against the New York Jets—seven passes for 210 yards. But a left knee and ankle injury the following week ultimately forced him to undergo offseason surgery for a cyst removal.

Jimmy Cefalo, who caught two touchdown passes in the season opener at St. Louis, had his finest of four Dolphin seasons. Among his 29 catches for 631 yards (21.8-yard average) was a 54-yard hookup that preserved a victory over Washington and a 69-yard touchdown at Dallas.

Tight ends Joe Rose (23 for 316 yards) and Bruce Hardy (15 for 174 yards) combined for almost 500 yards in receptions while starter Ronnie Lee did the bulk of the blocking.

Second-round pick Mark Duper, a world-class sprinter with genuine pass-catching skills, could inject an immediate bomb threat at wide receiver.

Miami's offensive line had representation at the Pro Bowl for the ninth time in 11 years when right guard Ed Newman was honored by his peers. Newman's powerful blocking characterizes a front line which has gained maturity and cohesiveness in the past three seasons.

What the Dolphins asserted in 1981 was uncommon excellence in their reserves. Left guard Jeff Toews replaced veteran Bob Kuechenberg (sprained arch) for seven starts and center Dwight Stephenson took the slack for Mark Dennard (torn calf muscle) for five starts.

First-round draftee Roy Foster, a 275-pound giant from Southern California, adds depth while he begins absorbing both guard and tackle assignments.

Miami fought its way to an AFC East championship in 1981 largely on the strength of an aggressive, swarming defense. Assistant head coach Bill Arnsparger, the architect of that defense, coordinated what amounted to two draftees per year from 1976 through 1980.

The draft-built defense lists Larry Gordon and Kim Bokamper from 1976, A.J. Duhe and Bob Baumhower from 1977, Gerald Small and Doug Betters from 1978, Don Bessillieu, Glenn Blackwood and Mike Kozlowski from 1979 and Don McNeal and Bill Barnett from 1980.

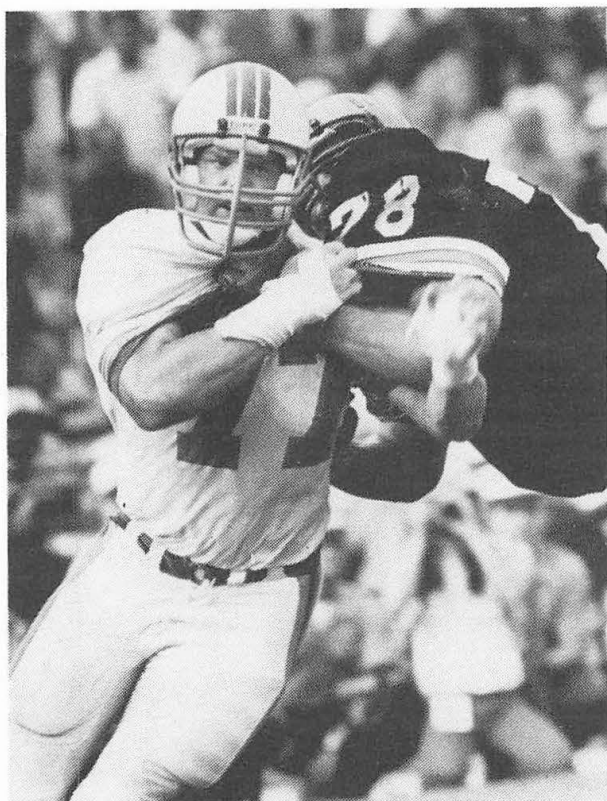

The Dolphins surrendered the fewest points (275) in the AFC a year ago, and in winning the last four games, they allowed only four touchdowns. Ironically, Miami permitted more yards than it gained and still fashioned an 11-4-1 record.

Although San Diego quarterback Dan Fouts shredded the Dolphins for 433 yards passing in the AFC playoff, Miami's defense had held five straight opponents to less than 200 net yards passing at the close of 1981.

Nose tackle Bob Baumhower, who has started 81 consecutive games in five superb seasons, anchors a stout defensive line. Baumhower had a career-high nine quarterback sacks and was named to the Pro Bowl for the second time. Left end Doug Betters, a towering pass-rusher, and right end Kim Bokamper can create pressure on the passer. Bill Barnett started twice in 1981 before a leg injury detoured him, and he should be an asset.

Four linebackers were the four leading tacklers for the first time in Dolphin history with Earnie Rhone (171), A.J. Duhe (110), Bob Brudzinski (102) and Larry Gordon (99). Inside linebackers Rhone and Duhe combined for 13½ sacks, and Brudzinski strengthened the run defense. Gordon should become the first Dolphin linebacker to start 100 games.

For linebacker depth, former free agents Steve Shull and Steve Potter have been reliable hitters on special teams. Draftees Charles Bowser of Duke and Ron Hester of Florida State are serious challengers with their exceptional speed.

Shula wants his defensive backfield to become opportunists in 1982 and increase the Dolphins' takeaway total. Miami managed only 18 interceptions last season, and both cornerbacks Don McNeal and Gerald Small drew blanks.

Small, who has 54 consecutive starts at right cornerback, excels on coverage and set a Dolphin record with 23 passes defended in 1981. He must rehabilitate a left shoulder which was separated while playing basketball in May.

McNeal, regarded by Shula as a future certainty as All-Pro, was hobbled by injuries in 1981. A torn calf muscle put him on the sideline for two games in October, and he missed the AFC East title game against Buffalo with a fractured forearm.

At safety, the Dolphins presented the Blackwood Brothers in 1981. Glenn Blackwood led the secondary in interceptions and tackles, and older brother Lyle steadied the pass defense when he started the final 10 games.

Mike Kozlowski, whose two interceptions sealed the victory over Buffalo for the division crown, will challenge both Blackwoods for a starting job in his third season. Second-year pro Fulton Walker and 1982 draftee Paul Lankford of Penn State lend strength at cornerback, and veteran Ed Taylor could give a significant boost to the secondary if he recovers from knee surgery.

Placekicker Uwe von Schamann, who had four game-winning kicks in 1981, was the AFC's most accurate kicker with a 24-of-31 mark. Von Schamann, however, was facing a long recovery from a serious case of colitis which caused him to be hospitalized July 21. The disease, which is an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the colon, caused him to lose 25 pounds.

Punter Tom Orosz averaged 40.8 yards as a rookie after ousting veteran George Roberts in training camp.

BILL BARNETT

Defensive End

70

6-4½, 260
3rd Year
Born May 10, 1956

Nebraska
(D3, 1980)

A powerful and quick lineman, he should have an impact on Dolphin defense in 1982 . . . he wrested starting position at right end for two games in 1981 and Dolphins permitted only 17 points in unbeaten start . . . Barnett suffered contusion to lower right leg, and hemorrhaging forced an operation . . . he wore 35 stitches and waited five weeks on injured reserve before being reactivated in November . . . 11th-year pro Vern Den Herder and converted linebacker Kim Bokamper alternated in run-pass situations the rest of the season . . . Barnett has been compared to Den Herder by Coach Shula as being "steady, strong and dependable" . . . he has improved bench press more than 25 percent to 380 pounds . . . he performed on special teams in 1980, and rookie earned game ball against Cincinnati when he flew over a blocker and swatted away an attempted punt by Pat McNally . . . that effort set up winning field goal, and it was the only blocked punt by a Dolphin in last three seasons (1979-81) . . . he has participated in nine tackles (7 initial hits) in each of his pro seasons . . . third-round draftee, 75th player in 1980.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was a late bloomer at Nebraska and started as senior for Big Eight's best rushing defense . . . he had seven tackles for losses and recovered two fumbles in 1979 . . . three teammates on defensive line were All-Big Eight while he won second team honors . . . honorable mention All-America by Sporting News and Academic All-Big Eight with B.A. in advertising . . . Cornhuskers (10-2) were ranked 7th by UPI and had 10 seniors drafted . . . full name William Perry Barnett, born May 10, 1956 in St. Paul, Minn., and starred at Stillwater High, even lettering twice in hockey . . . he and his wife Linda (married 7-6-78) live in Lincoln, Neb., and they have two daughters, Amy, 13, and Angie, 8, by wife's previous marriage.

BOB BAUMHOWER

Defensive Tackle

6-5, 260

6th Year

Born Aug. 4, 1955

Alabama

(D2, 1977)

As the only Dolphin defensive tackle ever named to Pro Bowl, he has built a reputation for toughness and durability in anchoring the run defense for five seasons . . . Alabama strongman earned Pro Bowl honors in 1979 and 1981 when Dolphins won AFC East titles, and his streak of 81 consecutive starts is sixth-longest in team history . . . only Jim Langer (117) and Norm Evans (102), both offensive linemen, have topped 100 consecutive starts . . . Sporting News named him All-NFL in 1981, first Dolphin defender given All-NFL honor since 1974 . . . Baumhower and weak safety Jake Scott (1970-75) are only Dolphins who both started every game they played and never missed a game with an injury . . . he established Dolphin record for quarterback sacks by a defensive tackle in 1981 with nine sacks, one more than Manny Fernandez collected in 1971 . . . Baumhower smothered Houston QB Ken Stabler four times in 16-10 triumph and claimed a game ball . . . he consistently broke the Dolphin record for tackles by a lineman with totals of 131, 144 and 146 in first three seasons and a team-leading 135 tackles in 1980 . . . Pro Football Weekly named him All-AFC in 1979 and 1981 and UPI accorded honor in 1981, and Associated Press placed him on All-NFL second team in 1979 and 1981 . . . he blocked field-goal attempts twice in 1980 leading to victories over Atlanta and New England . . . he picked up Cincinnati fumble and pounded 13 yards for a touchdown Oct. 9, 1978 for first score by a Dolphin lineman since 1969 . . . Coach Don Shula cites "great leg strength unusual for most rangy players" in Baumhower's ability to hold his ground despite double-team blocking . . . he graduated to 400 Club in bench press at 1982 minicamp with 405 pounds . . . NFL All-Rookie honors in 1977, he shared Football Digest's NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year award with teammate A. J. Duhe . . . finest game as rookie saw him collect 19 tackles, two QB sacks and fumble recovery at Cincinnati . . . he underwent surgery in June 1978 for damaged cartilage in left knee, missed almost all training camp, and finally had cyst removed from knee in January 1979 . . . he had surgery on ulna nerves in both elbows in January 1981 . . . second-round draftee, 40th player in 1977.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was All-Southeastern Conference tackle twice at Alabama and he accumulated 246 stops as a three-year regular including 28 tackles for losses totalling 135 yards . . . he and New York Jets quarterback Richard Todd were 1975 teammates on Alabama team which topped Penn State 13-6, in Sugar Bowl, and Baumhower impressed Dolphin coaches on South staff at Senior Bowl . . . full name Robert Glenn Baumhower, born Aug. 4, 1955 in Portsmouth, Va., he played at Palm Beach Gardens High before transferring to Tuscaloosa, Ala., as senior . . . broadcasting major . . . he wears largest shoe among Dolphins, size 15 . . . bachelor lives in Fort Lauderdale and enjoys boating, and he operates Nautical Dolphin Charters with 65-foot Grebe motor yacht . . . he also is partner with Richard Todd in Michael's Restaurant in Fort Lauderdale . . . he has Amazon parrot, a yellow nape called Ralph who speaks Spanish.

A fierce tackler with the speed to cover wide range, he has renewed challenge for full-time duty in Dolphin secondary . . . he started first six games of 1981 and played extensively in six-back pass defense the rest of the way . . . he tops Dolphin defensive backs with 365 pounds in bench press, and he covers 40-yard dash in 4.6 seconds . . . his 19 starts at weak safety are more than any of the other eight successors of Jake Scott (1970-75) . . . his finest season was 1980 with four interceptions in 13 starts . . . he also accumulated 93 tackles (63 initial hits), broke up 16 passes and had two quarterback sacks on blitzes . . . his end-zone interception closed a 27-10 triumph over Baltimore in final volley of Dolphins nine-year rivalry with Bert Jones . . . Bessillieu averaged 22.3 yards on kickoff returns in 1980, and his 87-yard escape triggered a winning fourth-quarter rally at Atlanta . . . big-play defender aided 17-14 victory of Buffalo in 1980 by dashing 44 yards with Joe Cribbs fumble for first Dolphin touchdown . . . he also serves as backup placekicker to Uwe von Schamann . . . he earned WIOD Special Teams Award in second year although he impressed as rookie with reckless abandon on kickoff coverage . . . rookie jitters before 1979 preseason opening caused him to leave kicking shoe at training camp when he was scheduled for kickoffs . . . fifth-round draftee, 134th player in 1979 . . . he was first Georgia Tech player drafted by Dolphins since linebacker Randall Edmunds in 1968.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He earned All-America honors from Sporting News as four-year starter at Georgia Tech . . . his interception and fumble recovery led to two touchdowns and MVP honor in East-West Shrine game, and he was voted best defensive back in Senior Bowl . . . he piled up 192 tackles and had five interceptions . . . he also returned 39 punts for 296 yards, and as freshman, he converted 22 of 26 PATs and 5 of 8 field-goal attempts . . . full name Donald Andrew Bessillieu, born May 4, 1956 in Fort Benning, Ga., he was split end defensive back at Kendrick High in Columbus, Ga. . . he saved the life of an unconscious woman July 9, 1980 when her car went crashing off an expressway, through two fences and finally sinking in a deep lake near 13th green at Miami Lakes Country Club. . . Bessillieu dove into water and pulled the woman through a half-opened window only seconds before car disappeared in lake. . . he then three-putted from five feet for a double bogey . . . he and wife Sandra (married 2-9-80) live in Decatur, Ga.

DOUG BETTERS

Defensive End

75

6-7, 260

Nevada/Reno

5th Year

(D6, 1978)

Born June 11, 1956

The Dolphins' most intimidating pass-rusher, he mixes tenacity and quick pursuit to pressure the quarterback . . . he switched from right end to left end in 1981 and gave the Dolphin defense the consistency in run containment which Vern Den Herder had provided for previous nine seasons . . . Betters stands a quarter-inch beyond 6-foot-7—a helmeted seven-footer and the tallest defensive lineman in Dolphin history . . . he had five quarterback sacks in 1981 and participated in 63 tackles . . . his harassment of Kansas City quarterback Steve Fuller was instrumental in 17-7 victory over Chiefs that clinched playoff berth . . . he had forced fumble by Sam Cunningham which Dolphin teammate Mike Kozlowski returned 25 yards for tie-breaking touchdown in 24-14 triumph over New England a week earlier . . . Betters had played 65 consecutive games and started 45 of 46 when a staph infection caused by a boil on his lower back knocked him out of AFC East title game against Buffalo . . . he was hospitalized four days and received his first game ball while listening to the game on the radio . . . he has collected 21 quarterback sacks in four seasons, topped by eight sacks in 1979, and he piled up a career-high 83 tackles in 1980 . . . a jarring tackler, he forced three fumbles in 1981 and raised his team-leading total to 11 since 1978 . . . he seized the starting job at right end for the last 14 games of 1979 and precipitated the switch of A.J. Duhe to linebacker in 1980 . . . he didn't start 1979 playoff at Pittsburgh because of sprained arch . . . as a rookie, he started six games in Duhe's injury absence and had four QB sacks . . . sixth-round draftee, 163rd player in 1978.

Guard Ed Newman on rookie Andra Franklin's first 100-yard game in 1981:

"This is going to be one of many for him. It's going to be a habit for him. I mean, we ran one today, and I got neutralized by Herb Orvis (Baltimore defender) on a straight-ahead play, and Andra hit it like a locomotive and kept my feet driving, and we got nine yards on it. That's the kind of thing that happens all the time. The guy's got a heart like a thoroughbred."

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was credited with 10 quarterback sacks for Nevada/Reno in 1977, led the Wolf Pack (8-3) with 82 tackles, also recovered four fumbles and caused four others . . . he played three years as defensive tackle at Montana, then followed defensive coordinator John Smith to Reno for senior year . . . full name Douglas Lloyd Betters, born June 11, 1956 in Lincoln, Neb., he was raised in Chicago area and starred in football and basketball at Arlington Heights . . . free-spirited bachelor once lived in his '65 van rather than college apartment at Montana . . . he earned pilot's license in 1981 and he enjoys backpacking and skiing . . . he lives in Pembroke Pines.

Texas

4th Year

(D8b, 1979)

Born Feb. 23, 1957

He has become the blasting cap in the Dolphin secondary with his feisty tackling, and he has provided intelligent leadership for the past two seasons . . . Glenn offered a strong job recommendation for older brother Lyle in 1981, leading to an 11-game act featuring the Blackwood Brothers at the Dolphin safeties . . . Blackwoods were a tandem for 7th through 16th games and playoff . . . Glenn was voted outstanding defensive back by South Florida media after leading team with four interceptions at strong safety . . . he has paced Dolphins with 12 takeaways—seven interceptions, five fumble recoveries—over past two seasons . . . he intercepted Terry Bradshaw twice in 30-10 rout of Pittsburgh in 1981, and he also had two diving interceptions in his first NFL start at Buffalo in 1980 . . . he suffered slight separation of right shoulder in third game of 1980 and again in seventh game of 1981 but never missed a starting assignment . . . he also overcame a broken right thumb in 1979 preseason . . . rugged Texan made a successful comeback from 1979 knee surgery and completed a Dolphin-record seven laps and 160 yards (two miles) in 12-minute run in 1980 training camp . . . he and A. J. Duhe were only veterans to exceed seven laps in 1982 minicamp . . . he performed as "nickel" back in Dolphin secondary which surrendered only 5 touchdown passes in first 11 games of 1979 . . . rookie year ended with torn ligaments in left knee during 11th game—a bizarre result of his first football confrontation with brother Lyle, then a Baltimore Colts safety . . . Lyle was blocking for punt returner, and Glenn dodged him and landed awkwardly, tearing anterior cruciate ligament . . . parents of Blackwood brothers had driven from New Orleans to Miami to see Dolphins blank Colts, 19-0 . . . parents also attended two games in 1981 (Dallas and Oakland) in which sons were teammates . . . eighth-round draftee, 215th player in 1979.

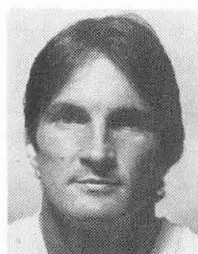

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: A versatile three-year starter at Texas, he played both cornerback and safety . . . he returned interception 30 yards for touchdown against Rice in 1977, and he collected 104 tackles over his last two seasons . . . 1977 Longhorns were 11-0 before losing to Notre Dame in Cotton Bowl . . . he suffered broken left wrist in 1978 but had interception in Sun Bowl victory to conclude 9-3 season . . . Longhorns had outstanding secondary that included Johnnie Johnson (Rams), Derrick Hatchett (Colts) and Ricky Churchman (49ers) . . . full name Glenn Allen Blackwood, born Feb. 23, 1957 in San Antonio Tex., he starred at Churchill High . . . he and wife Beth (married 4-3-82) live in Pembroke Pines, Fl. . . . he organizes chapel services on Dolphin road trips and speaks frequently to church groups in South Florida.

Texas Christian

10th Year

(FA, 1981)

Born Sept. 25, 1954

His roller-coaster career brought him to Miami in 1981, and the savvy, big-play defender stabilized the Dolphins' defensive secondary in a drive to the AFC East title . . . Blackwood joined younger brother Glenn as AFC's only brothers act (Lee Roy and Dewey Selmon were sibling defenders for Tampa Bay Buccaneers) . . . Lyle delivered a diving interception of Philadelphia's Ron Jaworski which set up winning field goal in 13-10 triumph over Eagles . . . he also intercepted San Diego's Dan Fouts and lateraled to Gerald Small on 30-yard return that helped Dolphins pull ahead of Chargers, 38-31, in playoff which ended in overtime defeat . . . he was signed as free agent Sept. 30 after cornerback Don McNeal tore hamstring, and Blackwood replaced Don Bessillieu at weak safety for final 10 starts of regular season . . . he participated in 57 tackles (37 initial hits) and also had interceptions in victories over Baltimore and Kansas City . . . Blackwood has played 117 games in nine-year career with four teams . . . his NFL journey has taken him from Cincinnati (1973-75) to expansionist Seattle (1976) to Baltimore (1977-80) and finally Miami (1981) . . . he started 43 consecutive games for Colts, and he led the league with 10 interceptions in 1977 on AFC East championship club and earned All-NFL second team from Associated Press . . . Colts suffered double-overtime, 37-31 loss to Oakland in 1977 playoff . . . he returned two interceptions for touchdowns of 78 and 21 yards in 1978 when he took part in a career-high 185 tackles . . . his 25 career interceptions have been returned 436 yards . . . ninth-round draftee, 217th player in 1973 by Denver (his brother Glenn was 215th player in 1979 draft) . . . Broncos waived Blackwood in 1973 preseason and Cincinnati claimed him . . . he was selected by Seattle in 1976 expansion draft, and he blocked a field goal in Seahawks' first victory . . . he was claimed on waivers Aug. 11, 1977 by Colts, and he became an immediate starter . . . he swiped three passes Nov. 20, 1977 against New York Jets . . . he wore No. 44 with Colts.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He earned All-Southwest Conference honors as junior and senior at Texas Christian with nine interceptions including record 83-yarder against Washington in 1971 . . . he played in North-South Shrine game in Miami in 1972 . . . he transferred to TCU after intercepting 15 passes in two seasons at Blinn Junior College in Texas . . . full name Lyle V. 6th Year

Born Sept. 25, 1954

San Jose State

(D1b, 1976)

An explosive pass-rusher with unusually quick pursuit, he made a steady and successful transition from linebacker to defensive end in 1981 . . . he had earned Pro Bowl honors at linebacker in 1979, becoming the only Dolphin linebacker besides Nick Buoniconti (1972-73) to do it . . . his four-year total of 22½ quarterback sacks prompted a look at defensive end in fifth season, and Bokamper delivered 9½ sacks including two takedowns of San Diego's Dan Fouts in playoff game . . . his linebacker's swiftness and lineman's bulk made him a menacing weapon in Dolphin defense, but refinement of run-containment responsibilities required patience . . . he replaced right end Vern Den Herder in all passing situations, but in AFC East title game against Buffalo, Bokamper excelled in starting assignment . . . he spilled Joe Cribbs for five-yard loss and broke up a pass in two crucial third-down plays that forced Bills to settle for field goals in 16-6 Dolphin victory . . . he had blitzed from left outside linebacker in first two seasons and worked from three-point stance in the line for most passing situations in 1979 and 1980 . . . durable Californian has missed only two games in five years, due to deep thigh bruise and twisted ankle in 1979 . . . he tore ligaments in right knee in 1980 finale but made strong recovery . . . South Florida media voted him outstanding linebacker in 1980 . . . he had career-high 124 tackles (79 initial hits) in 1978 when he collared quarterbacks 10 times including Houston's Dan Pastorini twice in playoff . . . he wore a cast protecting broken left thumb when he had two QB sacks and blocked a punt for a safety Oct. 29, 1978 against Baltimore, and he had end-zone interception earlier in shutout against Baltimore . . . in his first NFL start, he was one of four rookies in defensive lineup in 1977 shutout at Buffalo . . . first-round draftee, 19th player in 1976 following Dolphins' selection of linebacker Larry Gordon on 17th pick . . . Bokamper's rookie year was postponed by surgery on left knee for injury sustained while covering kickoff in third preseason game.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was voted outstanding defensive player in East-West Shrine game, and he excelled at defensive end for San Jose State (9-2) when Spartans won the 1975 Pacific Coast Athletic Association title . . . he also played in Blue-Gray and Senior Bowl . . . full name Kim Bokamper (no middle name), born Sept. 25, 1954 in San Diego and raised in Milpitas, Ca., where he played tight end in high school . . . he attended Concordia College in Moorhead, Minn., as freshman, then transferred to San Jose City College and finally San Jose State . . . he and wife Colleen (married 4-26-80) live in Plantation, Fl., and have worked frequently in fund-raising effort for Ronald House project in South Florida.

"He's a firm hand for me. There's no complacency with the man. There's only one way to do things—his way, the right way . . . I used to be a little top-heavy. I was so strong and powerful coming off the ball . . . I would do things and say, 'How could you blame me for knocking a guy half a mile out of the stadium?' and he would tell me there's a better way. He was very, very firm with me. I'm really glad for it now. My consistency and my effectiveness have gone up. There are plenty enough plays where you can be Superman. He kind of moderated me."

MARK DENNARD

Center

63

6-1, 252

4th Year

Born Nov. 2, 1955

Texas A&M

(D10, 1978)

An intense battler with plenty of quick and no quit, he provides a strong link between the All-Pro guards on either side of him . . . Dennard's similarities to former All-Pro center Jim Langer go beyond the squat build and include determination and hard-work attitude . . . he returned to Dolphin line up in 1981 playoff against San Diego after missing five games with torn calf muscles in right leg . . . he suffered injury while playing with a sprained left ankle . . . he started 35 consecutive games before being sidelined, and second-year pro Dwight Stephenson took his place . . . Texan received game ball in 16-10 triumph at Houston . . . "The first thing that comes to mind about Mark is toughness, both mental and physical," Coach Don Shula says. "He's a brawler. He'll do anything to try to get the job done" . . . he inherited the job in 1979 when Langer was injured in ninth game, ending a streak of 117 consecutive starts . . . Dennard earned NFL All-Rookie honors with seven starts on way to AFC East title, and his first start was unenviable combat with Houston nose tackle Curly Culp . . . he had postponed his rookie year by spending 1978 on injured reserve after having one finger broken and another dislocated in preseason opener . . . he bench presses 455 pounds, second only to Dolphin guard Ed Newman at 495 pounds, while offensive line teammates Bob Kuechenberg (430) and Jeff Toews (425) also are among the 400-pound strongmen . . . 10th-round draftee, 274 player in 1978 . . . he was conscripted later (274th) than any player ever to start in Dolphins' offense . . . wide receiver Howard Twilley (1966) was drafted in 12th round, but in nine-team American Football League, that made him the 100th player, equivalent to a fourth-round pick today.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was voted to the second team for All-Southwest Conference of the 1970s, and he was All-SWC as senior at Texas A&M . . . he earned Academic All-America as junior and got B.A. in marketing . . . full name Mark Wesley Dennard, born Nov. 2, 1955 in Bay City, Tex., he starred in football and baseball at Bay City High . . . he and wife Donna (married 5-27-78) live in Bryan, Tex., with daughter Christine (6-14-79) and son Wes (12-9-80) . . . Donna watched 1980 Dolphin upset of New England on Monday night TV from her hospital bed, then gave birth to Wes the next morning . . . Dennard works at First National Bank in Bryan during offseason.

A. J. DUHE

Inside Linebacker

77

6-4, 248

6th Year

Born Nov. 27, 1955

Louisiana State

(D1, 1977)

A spirited, fiercely competitive player, he creates havoc for blockers with his effective blitzes from inside linebacker . . . his 1980 transition from defensive end to linebacker reaped dividends in 1981 with his improved awareness . . . he ranked second among Dolphin tacklers with 110 stops (61 initial hits) and he joined the pass rush for 7½ quarterback sacks . . . he earned game balls in triumphs at St. Louis and Kansas City, and his harassment of Pittsburgh quarterback Terry Bradshaw in 30-10 rout of Steelers won Defensive Player of Week honors from Pro Football Weekly . . . his boundless enthusiasm has carried him from NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year in 1977 to All-AFC by United Press International in 1981 . . . he was an explosive pass-rusher with 15 sacks in first two seasons, and as linebacker, he still assumed three-point stance as Dolphins disguised their defense . . . a sportswriter's suggestion prompted Coach Don Shula to experiment with Duhe at outside linebacker while Larry Gordon was contract holdout during 1980 training camp . . . Duhe started 1980 opener at OLB and moved inside for third game where he has started 31 consecutive games . . . he tied for team lead with 5½ sacks in 1980 . . . he had team-leading seven sacks at right end in 1977, three of them while earning game ball in 14-10 victory at New York Jets . . . biggest play as rookie was blocked punt which led to clinching touchdown in 17-5 triumph over New England . . . his right knee required surgery in August 1978 for damaged cartilage, sidelining him for five starts . . . he scored safely on end-zone sack at Houston in 1978 but bruised shoulder and missed another start . . . he chugged 68 yards with recovery of a Dan Fouts fumble in Oct. 15, 1978 victory at San Diego for longest fumble return in Dolphin history . . . abdominal muscle pull reduced his playing time in 1979 when Doug Betters moved ahead at right end . . . first-round draftee, 13th player in 1977 and seventh defensive lineman in bumper crop . . . he was 18-day contract holdout for first training camp.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: A four-year starter at Louisiana State, he was voted outstanding defender for South in Senior Bowl while playing alongside Bob Baumhower . . . he averaged 72 tackles per season and had 27 tackles for 133 yards in losses . . . he won LSU scholarship by blocking three punts in high school all-star game in 1973 . . . B.A. in general studies . . . full name Adam Joseph Duhe, Jr., born Nov. 27, 1955 in New Orleans and raised in Reserve, La., he starred at Leon Godchaux High . . . he and college sweetheart Frances (married 5-24-80) were wed during her reign as Orange Bowl queen, and they live in Miami Shores . . . he was voted Man of Year by Dolphin fans in 1981 for his active role in charitable events.

ANDRA FRANKLIN

Fullback

37

5-10, 225

Nebraska

2nd Year

(D2, 1981)

Born Aug. 22, 1959

He churned through defenses like a miniature tank in 1981 and rewrote the Dolphins' rookie rushing record in the process . . . a power runner and devastating blocker, he accumulated 711 yards on 201 carries (3.5-yard average) and scored eight touchdowns including one TD pass . . . he topped the rookie mark established in 1968 by Jim Kiick (621 yards) and also outdistanced the rookie-year production of Larry Csonka, who gained 540 yards in 1968 . . . Franklin scored four TDs in his first two NFL starts, and he gained three yards on the final play of a 27-10 victory over Baltimore for his first 100-yard game -- 101 yards on 23 carries Nov. 1 . . . he replaced injured Woody Bennett during third game of 1981 and caught three-yard TD pass from Don Strock for 16-10 triumph at Baltimore . . . he broke a 29-yard gain at Houston . . . he was voted outstanding rookie by South Florida media . . . he started 13 games including playoff against San Deigo . . . he fumbled six times, losing four of them . . . second-round draftee, 56th player in 1981 and fourth fullback behind Randy McMillan (Colts), Marion Barber (Jets) and James Wilder (Buccaneers).

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He powered 543 and 678 yards in his last two seasons at Nebraska and ranked No. 10 on Cornhuskers' all-time rushing chart with 1,738 yards on 324 carries and 10 touchdowns . . . Huskers averaged 360 yards rushing in 1980 and ranked second in nation in total offense at 491.2 yards per game while Franklin was rated among runners as "best blocker in college football" according to Chuck Connor, Dolphins' Dir. of Player Personnel . . . Huskers were 38-10 during Franklin's career, which he closed with 67 yards on 17 carries in 31-17 triumph over Mississippi State in Sun Bowl . . . he gained 122 yards against both Missouri and Oklahoma as a senior . . . I-backs such as Rick Berns, I.M. Hipp and Jarvis Redwine all topped 1,000 with Franklin blocking . . . full name Andra Bernard Franklin, born Aug. 22, 1959 in Anniston, Ala., he was three-sport star at Anniston High . . . majored in elementary education . . . he and wife Rebecca (married 12-6-80) live in Hialeah.

JON GIESLER

Offensive Tackle

79

6-5, 260

Michigan

4th Year

(D1, 1979)

Born Dec. 23, 1956

An imposing blocker with power to drive off defenders and quickness to maintain pass protection, he has matured into a dependable pro . . . he stabilized the Dolphins' offensive line at midseason 1980 upon recovering from shoulder separation, and his 27 consecutive starts at left tackle include all of 1981—the first time since 1977 that injuries haven't forced any changes at either tackle spot . . . Giesler and Eric Laakso are second-longest-running tandem of tackles since Doug Crusan and Norm Evans linked 43 consecutive starts from 1969 to 1971 . . . Giesler has improved his strength significantly since Dolphins invested a No. 1 draft choice in 1979, and his bench press figure has climbed from 315 to 390 pounds through offseason conditioning program . . . his on-field progress is apparent in twice-a-year combat with New York Jets All-Pro defensive end Joe Klecko . . . he started final 10 games of 1980, and in his first pro start, he helped Dolphins rush for more yards (149) than any previous six games while upsetting Buffalo, the NFL leader in total defense . . . Giesler separated right shoulder in scrimmage with New Orleans, but was counted in final cutdown to 45 players, then placed on injured reserve until Oct. 10 . . . he served on special teams as rookie while Bob Kuchenberg toiled at left tackle in 1979 . . . he inherited No. 79 jersey from left tackle Wayne Moore, a starter in two Super Bowl triumphs and who had a string of 50 consecutive starts from 1974 to 1978 . . . first-round draftee, 24th player in 1979 and third offensive lineman behind Keith Dorney (Lions) and Kelvin Clark (Broncos).

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: An All-Big Ten tackle, the native Ohioan played in three successive Michigan victories (1976-78) over Ohio State, and then Wolverines were 10-2 in both his junior and senior years . . . he won team's hustle award . . . Associated Press and Sporting News honorable mention All-America . . . B.S. in education . . . full name Jon William Giesler, born Dec. 23, 1956 in Toledo, Ohio, and raised in Woodville, Ohio . . . track standout at Woodmore High (combining Woodville and Elmore) with 60-10 in shot put and 171-3 in discus . . . state champion in shot put (58-5) as junior . . . he was raised in same Sandusky County as Dolphin linebacker Bob Brudzinski . . . he and wife Lori (married 6-30-79) live in Pembroke Pines, Fl., with their daughter Kristin (11-1-81), who was born while Giesler was working a Sunday shift at the Orange Bowl.

Games/Starts—1979 (16-0); 1980 (10-10); 1981 (16-16). Playoffs (2-1). TOTAL: 44-27.

LARRY GORDON

Linebacker

50

6-4, 230

Arizona State

7th Year

(D1a, 1976)

Born July 8, 1954

A swift predator of opposing ballcarriers, he has been a crackling hitter in Dolphin defense since 1976 . . . he has great acceleration for blitzing and agility for pass coverage as a complete linebacker . . . right outside linebacker was voted the Dolphins' outstanding linebacker by South Florida media in 1978 and 1979 . . . he should eclipse Dolphin record for most starts by a linebacker, now 96 starts by Nick Buoniconti (1969-76) . . . Gordon has 92 starts including uninterrupted duty in 1976, 1977, 1979 and 1981 and he has missed only three starts in six years . . . he has averaged 107 tackles with his outstanding pursuit, and he has 14 quarterback sacks . . . he sacked New York Jets quarterback Richard Todd for a safety in 1981 showdown for AFC East lead, and Dolphin defense allowed a total of only five touchdowns in last five games . . . Gordon was joined in 1977 by draftees A.J. Duhe and Bob Baumhower to form the nucleus of a rebuilding defense, and they are the only three rookies since 1970 to start every game in their rookie season . . . Gordon's finest hour consisted of three interceptions, eight tackles and a blocked PAT in 1978 triumph over Oakland that secured playoff berth . . . Coach Don Shula called it the "greatest game I've ever seen a linebacker play" . . . his three pass thefts (two were ricochets) were most ever by a Dolphin linebacker, and he returned them 35 yards . . . he started 30 consecutive games before hamstringing and groin pull bothered him in third game of 1978, then he started 31 more in succession . . . he earned game ball with two sacks and 27-yard interception runback against Seattle in 1977 and again with 33-yard interception return to set up clinching touchdown at Baltimore in 1979 . . . he was contract holdout until Aug. 21 in 1980 training camp and didn't start opener, then a sprained knee caused him to miss 12th game . . . first-round draftee, 17th player in 1976 and first linebacker, he became Dolphins' first No. 1 pick of the 1970s to live up to expectations.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was voted outstanding defensive player in 1975 Fiesta Bowl when his interception helped unbeaten, second-ranked Arizona State upset Nebraska, 17-14 . . . he earned All-America honor on Time Magazine squad picked by pro scouts, and he had 121 and 132 tackles in last two seasons with Sun Devils . . . he played in East-West Shrine, Senior Bowl and last College All-Star game in Chicago . . . full name Lawrence Wayne Gordon, born July 8, 1954 in Monroe, La., and raised on farm in Oakgrove, La. . . he starred at Phoenix Union High after family moved to Arizona in his sophomore year

... older brother Ira was offensive guard with San Diego Chargers (1970-75) ... he and wife Mary (married 3-13-79) live in Miramar, Fl., with their sons Lawrence (4-13-80) and Wayne (4-24-81).

CLEVELAND GREEN

Offensive Tackle

74

6-3, 262

Southern

4th Year

(FA, 1979)

Born Sept. 11, 1957

A big, quick-striking blocker with unusual agility, he has been valuable insurance as the Dolphins' top reserve at offensive tackle for three seasons ... he has made continual progress in mastering techniques of blocking since he hadn't played the position in college ... he overcame longshot odds and landed berth on Dolphin roster in 1979 not only as a free-agent rookie but also as a defensive lineman making switch to offense in middle of training camp ... his hard-working attitude has turned raw potential into capable performance, although knee problem in 1981 restricted his mobility ... he relieved for 12 offensive plays in AFC East title game against Buffalo and replaced Dwight Stephenson on kickoff-return wedge for final five games when Stephenson filled in for injured Mark Dennard ... Green had started first three games of 1980 at left tackle before discovering a broken bone in left hand, which put him on injured reserve for four games (6th through 9th) ... he switched from No. 61 to No. 74 a few days before 1980 opener ... all-around athletic ability is apparent on basketball court where he averages 30 points for Dolphins' offseason All-Pro squad ... he has improved strength by more than 100 pounds to a 350 mark in bench press since joining offseason conditioning program ... a mixup in his college status resulted in scouts believing he was a junior in 1978 but he had played briefly on special teams as Southern University freshman in 1975 ... NCAA ruled him ineligible for 1979, too late to inform scouts for draft ... his coach called Dolphin defensive coordinator Bill Arnsparger to request tryout for Green.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was a three-year starter at defensive end for Southern and was selected to play in Black All-Star game but he declined ... he collected 34 quarterback sacks in final two seasons ... his high school coach at Hinds Agricultural High in Utica, Miss., had told him he was suited for offensive line ... full name Cleveland Carl Green, born Sept. 11, 1957 in Bolton, Miss., he was youngest of 10 children raised on farm near Bolton ... majored in agriculture ... he and wife Wanda live in Miami with their son Kendrick (1-14-79) ... he has worked as a recreation director at North Miami Beach's Allen Park for past two offseasons.

Games/Starts—1979 (16-0); 1980 (12-3); 1981 (6-0). Playoffs (2-0). TOTAL: 36-3.

BRUCE HARDY

Tight End

DURIEL HARRIS

Wide Receiver

82

5-11, 176

7th Year

Born Nov. 27, 1954

New Mexico St.

(D3, 1976)

He scintillates flashes of big-play brilliance as Dolphins' most exciting pass receiver . . . he has an acrobatic flair for difficult catches, and he consistently delivers the bomb with five catches over 40 yards in 1981 . . . Harris amassed 911 yards on 53 catches in 1981 for second-best total in Dolphin history, and he could have been first 1,000-yard receiver in club history except that a sprained left knee kept him on the bench for most of last three games . . . he has career totals of 229 catches for 3,919 yards, second only to Nat Moore in Dolphin record book, and excluding Harris' rookie year of 1976, he accumulated more yards in a five-year period (3,547 yards) than his idol Paul Warfield netted in his 1970-74 stint in Miami . . . South Florida media voted Harris the outstanding receiver in 1980 and 1981 . . . he has averaged 17.1 yards per catch, second to Warfield's untouchable 21.5 -yard coverage . . . he executed one of the most memorable plays in Dolphin history, the 40-yard flea-flicker touchdown pass against San Diego in 1981 playoff, as Harris lunged for Don Strock's pass and then lateralled to Tony Nathan for final 25 yards . . . he earned game ball with nine catches for 114 yards including 17-yard touchdown against Philadelphia, but he sprained knee in his exuberance while spiking football in the end zone . . . he had only two catches for 16 yards in final three games, missing one altogether . . . he snagged six passes for 165 yards, including bombs for 45 and 41 yards, in 28-27 loss at Dallas . . . he set up winning field goal with diving 45-yard catch at Baltimore, and he contributed three receptions on winning TD drive at Houston before home-state fans in 1981 . . . he hauled down eight passes for 145 yards including 55-yarder in triumph at New England, and he moved ahead of Warfield on all-time Dolphin chart with a 46-yard catch against Washington . . . he caught final TD pass of Bob Griese's career in 1980 . . . torn hamstring forced him to miss four games, but he returned against New England and outleaped safety for 54-yarder that set up winning field goal in overtime . . . he has been a starter for four years although double-TE formation on first down resulted in misleading statistic of three starts in 1980 . . . he collected four 100-yard games in 1979 and another three in 1981 as Dolphins won a pair of AFC East titles . . . he established Dolphin single-game records with 10 catches for 180 yards Oct. 28, 1979 against Green Bay, and 9 of 10 were delivered by Griese including 37-yard TD to ignite 27-7 rout . . . Nat Moore erased Harris' mark with 210 yards against New York Jets in 1981 . . . he and Moore combined for 90 reception and 1,638 yards—almost a mile—in 1979 to set a Dolphin record for a receiving tandem . . . Harris handled the football 214 times including receptions and kick returns before his first fumble of career in 1980 opener, and 1981 was his fifth fumble-free season . . . he has impressive 25.3-yard career average on 56 kickoff returns and All-NFL by Pro Football Weekly with league-leading 32.9-yard average as rookie in 1976 . . . combining passes and kick returns, he has averaged 18.4 yards (310 for 5,710) every time he has football, including three playoff games . . . he wore No. 26 as rookie because veterans had taken all numbers in 80s . . . third-round draftee, 80th player in 1976.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: An All-Missouri Valley Conference selection as senior, he was a "lonesome end" in Wishbone offense at New Mexico State but still caught 89 passes for 1,562 yards (17.5 average) and 13 touchdowns . . . his father Durriel, Sr., was elevated in 1980 to head football coach at Charlton-

Pollard High in Beaumont, Tex. . . . full name Duriel LaDon Harris, Jr., born Nov. 27, 1954 in Port Arthur, Tex., and boyhood friend of NFL running back Joe Washington, a former All-America at Oklahoma . . . Harris starred at Stephen F. Austin High after transferring from Lincoln High . . . bachelor lives in Miami Lakes . . . he had a bit part as an outfielder in the movie Blue Skies Again filmed in Fort Lauderdale in May 1982.

9th Year

(D3, 1974)

Born Sept. 19, 1951

His uncanny moves and quick acceleration have enabled him to amass 47 touchdown catches—a Dolphin record which could endure another decade ... a veritable pickpocket near the goal line, he thrived on quick-slant patterns in unison with Bob Griese for 6½ seasons ... Moore celebrated topping the 5,000-yard milestone Oct. 4, 1981 by snatching seven passes for a record 210 yards in 28-28 tie with the New York Jets ... all seven completions were launched by Don Strock including two TDs and long gains of 45, 47 and 52 yards ... he grabbed a league-leading 12 TD passes as an All-Pro in 1977 and he paced Dolphin receivers for six consecutive years (1974-79) while averaging 16.2 yards per catch ... left knee and ankle injury suffered in seventh game of 1981 hampered him as he missed three games and had career-low 26 catches for 452 yards ... he had cyst removed from knee Feb. 25 in first knee operation since 1974 ... Miamian concluded 1981 with Dolphin career records of 331 receptions for 5,202 yards and 47 TDs, and his all-purpose yardage of 6,593 is within 900 yards of record by Mercury Morris (1969-75) ... he has topped 100 yards receiving 10 times—two fewer than Paul Warfield (1970-74) . . . he earned All-NFL honors from Associated Press and Pro Football Writers in 1977 and All-AFC recognition from three other selectors . . . his most memorable performance was three-TD spectacular Sept. 25, 1977 at San Francisco when he scored 32-yard screen pass as halfback, 19-yard run on flanker reverse and 73-yard bomb after faking curl pattern and doing takeoff . . . he missed entire 1979 preseason when he suffered a hairline fracture of transverse process during scrimmage with New Orleans . . . he recovered quickly to produce 5-121 and 8-127 efforts in late September, and he caught a TD pass in six of Dolphins' eight victories in 1980 plus 33-yard reception that set up a winning field goal . . . his only long absence with injury was last five games of 1976 with broken left leg . . . third-round draftee, 78th player in 1974 . . . he won Tommy Fitzgerald Memorial Award as outstanding rookie in training camp when he grabbed TD passes of 73 and 67 yards in first Dolphin preseason game . . . he was fifth-round choice of Jacksonville Sharks in short-lived World Football League.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He was gamebreaker in 1972 as Florida junior by rushing for 845 yards and catching 25 passes for another 351 yards . . . injuries slowed him as a senior, and after Dolphins drafted him, he underwent knee surgery in 1974 . . . he had been freshman dropout at Tennessee-Martin and had played basketball at Miami-Dade Community College South where coached touted him to Florida . . . full name Nathaniel Moore (no middle name), born Sept. 19, 1951 in Tallahassee, he was raised in Miami and starred as All-City running back at Edison High in 1968 . . . he and wife Patricia live in North Miami with daughters Trellanee (3-30-70) and Natalie (11-3-77) . . . he is producer of "Jimmy G. International DJ's" for disco parties . . . he and former teammate Larry Little, now athletic director at Edison High, opened Superstars Rollertheque, a roller-skating disco, in 1981.

DON STROCK

Quarterback

10

6-5, 220

9th Year

Born Nov. 27, 1950

Virginia Tech

(D5, 1973)

An astute, proficient passer on a par with NFL starting quarterbacks, he nevertheless has earned the appellation "finest reliever" in pro football . . . he lifted the Dolphins to an AFC East title in 1981 with some outstanding relief work in victories over Houston, Philadelphia and Kansas City—all as a prelude to the finest passing display in Dolphin history when he riddled San Diego for 403 yards in a 41-38 playoff defeat . . . Strock came off bench in second quarter with a 24-point deficit facing him, and he ignited a furious rally with four touchdown passes . . . Dolphins wrested a 38-31 lead but lost in overtime after a crucial fumble and two missed field-goal attempts . . . Strock completed a Dolphin-record 29 passes in 43 attempts, and he became only the third quarterback in club history to throw four TD passes in a game . . . he replaced starter David Woodley five times (once due to injury) and Strock had one start at Buffalo in 1981 . . . he flipped a fourth-down, 14-yard TD pass to Duriel Harris in a 13-10 triumph over Philadelphia, and Strock played the second half at Houston and Kansas City with the Dolphins having led at halftime . . . he completed 7 of 10 passes including a three-yard TD to rookie Andra Franklin in overtaking Houston, 16-10 . . . Strock has started 18 games among the 82 in his career, serving the last four seasons as the holder for place kicks . . . he possesses the confidence and experience to direct a high-powered passing game, and he will contend for starting job while younger Woodley learns the craft . . . Strock demonstrated great potential in 1978 and 1979, and even rallied Dolphins from a nine-point deficit in final minutes for 17-16 triumph over Cincinnati in 1980 . . . he played the equivalent of 3½ games in 1979 and produced 109 points—31.1 points per game—and he propelled the Dolphins to 5-2 start in 1978 by drilling 10 touchdown passes and completing 65 of 125 passes in those first 6½ games . . . he owns a 12-8 career mark as "pitcher of record" since 1975 . . . he suffered slight concussion at New England (6th game) in 1980 and played only the second half at Oakland (9th game) the rest of season . . . he became a free agent after both the 1979 and 1980 seasons . . . he completed Dolphin-record 26 passes in 41 attempts and netted 322 yards in 1979 final against New York Jets only to lose on last-minute fumble 27-24 . . . he directed 13-play, 76-yard touchdown drive after relieving Bob Griese in 1979 playoff loss at Pittsburgh . . . he acquired duty as holder for place kicks in 1978 and he flipped a seven-yard TD pass to Vern Den Herder on fake field-goal attempt Oct. 29, 1978 against Baltimore . . . his first NFL start was Dec. 7, 1975 when injuries sidelined Griese and Earl Morrall, and Strock pegged 11 straight completions in 12-of-15 firing including two TDs in 31-21 conquest of Buffalo . . . fifth-round draftee, 111th player in 1973, seventh quarterback behind Bert Jones (Colts), Gary Huff (Bears), Gary Keithley (Cardinals), Dan Fouts (Chargers), Ron Jaworski (Rams) and Randy Mattingly (Browns) . . . he spent 1973 season on taxi squad and was No. 3 quarterback (1974-76) until Earl Morrall's retirement.

COLLEGE, PERSONAL: He led the nation in passing in 1972 at Virginia Tech, completing 228 of 427 passes (51 percent) for 3,243 yards and 16 touchdowns . . . he passed for an amazing 527 yards against Houston, hitting 34 of 53 passes, and he was voted outstanding offensive player in Blue-Grey game . . . B.S. in distributive education . . . full name Donald Joseph Strock, born Nov. 27, 1950 in Pottstown, Pa., where he starred at Owen J. Roberts High . . . he and wife Debby (married 2-17-79) live in Miami Springs, and they have been active in fund-raising efforts for Ronald House project in South Florida.

6-1½, 188

South Carolina St.

Born May 20, 1958

(D6a, 161)

A sticky pass defender and tough on the corner, he twice earned All-Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference honors at South Carolina State. . . he has good speed (4.6 seconds in 40-yard dash) and he attracted Dolphin scouts with his coverage skills. . . he was Bulldogs' co-captain as a senior and he led defensive backs with 65 tackles (36 initial hits), matching the 65 tackles from his junior season. . . he was named to Sheridan Black College All-Star game. . . he had five interceptions in career after sitting out 1978 season with disc problem. . . he and teammate William Judson, a Dolphin eighth-round draftee in 1981, helped S.C. State fashion a 10-1 record in 1980 and rank third in Division 1-AA. . . Tutson and Judson are first college teammates in memory to be competing for same roster spot with Dolphins. . . sixth-round draftee, 161st player. . . full name Thomas Tutson (no middle name), born May 20, 1958 in Jacksonville, Fl., he played football and basketball at Jacksonville Ribault High. . . B.S. in business administration. . . nickname "Tut" from last name.

MIAMI DOLPHINS: WINNING CONSISTENCY SINCE '70 MERGER

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins have consistently ranked in the top echelon of pro football. Miami and Dallas are the only teams to have won more than 70 percent of their games, and the Dolphins have more regular-season victories (123) than any AFC club.

	Regular			Pct.	Playoffs		W	L	T	Pct.

Orange Bowl crowd of 73,735 comprised fourth sellout of season.

RETIRED JERSEY • 12

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, had sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning since 1967.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980, and on the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first to be retired May 6, 1982 in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet.

He had presided over 101 of the 135 wins in Dolphin history (101-62-3) and had a .698 winning percentage (91-39-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin owner Joseph Robbie called him. He was consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in Pro Bowl and has been voted team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula says. "He gets as much thrill call the right running play for a touchdown as he does connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

Four former Dolphins rank in the Top 10 in various all-time National Football League statistical categories:

- Rushing—Fullback Larry Csonka, 8,081 yards rushing, seventh place. Csonka had three 1,000-yard seasons and gained 6,737 yards for the Dolphins in eight seasons (1968-74, 1979), and he scored 57 touchdowns.
- Touchdowns—Wide receiver Paul Warfield, 86 touchdowns, 10th place. Warfield scored 33 of those TDs in his five years in Miami (1970-74).
- Points—Placekicker Garo Yepremian, 1,062 points, ninth place. He kicked 165 field goals and 335 extra points for 830 points in his nine seasons with the Dolphins (1970-78).
- Kickoff Return Average—Mercury Morris, a 1,000-yard running back in 1972, had a 26.5-yard average on 111 kickoff returns to rank 10th. Morris spent seven years (1969-75) with Miami.

'81 Game-by-Game

Miami 20, St. Louis 7

St. Louis, Sept. 6—A swarming defense limited the Cardinals' Ottis Anderson to only 52 yards on 20 carries, and two touchdown passes from David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo provided the Dolphins' margin. It was the Dolphins' 12th consecutive victory over an NFC team. Woodley and Cefalo struck on a 22-yarder to spark a 13-0 first half, and Cefalo escaped for a 46-yard bomb early in the third quarter for a 20-0 bulge. The Dolphins managed only two first downs in their last five possessions. St. Louis quarterback Jim Hart injured his left knee on second series, and rookie Neil Lomax replaced him. Lomax's first NFL pass was intercepted by Glenn Blackwood and returned 34 yards to set up a field goal. The Cardinals' only touchdown was set up when blitzing safety Lee Nelson caused a Woodley fumble.

Miami 30, Pittsburgh 10

Miami, Sept. 10—In what veteran guard Bob Kuechenberg called "one giant step toward manhood," the Dolphins overpowered the four-time Super Bowl champion Steelers before the largest Orange Bowl crowd (74,190) in seven years. Linebacker A.J. Duhe aroused a Dolphin defense which sacked Terry Bradshaw four times—twice each by Duhe and Kim Bokamper—and strong safety Glenn Blackwood delivered two interceptions. Rookie Tom Vigorito provided the gamebreaker, a Dolphin-record 87-yard punt return for the fourth touchdown and a 27-10 bulge. Tony Nathan piled up 161 yards of total offense including a 13-yard TD pass and 77 yards on 10 rushes. The Steelers had beaten the Dolphins three straight times (1976, 1979, 1980), all in Pittsburgh. Fullback Franco Harris was limited to 38 yards on 13 carries.

Miami 16, Houston 10

Houston, Sept. 20—Nose tackle Bob Baumhower led an assault of Oilers' quarterback Ken Stabler with four sacks, but the Dolphins needed a three-yard touchdown pass from Don Strock to rookie fulback Andra Franklin to pull ahead in the fourth quarter. Franklin's first NFL pass reception came with 6:40 to play and gave the Dolphins their first victory in an AFC Central city since 1973. Three field goals (42, 37, 27) by Uwe von Schamann staked the Dolphins to a 9-7 halftime edge, then Strock relieved David Woodley. Stabler was sacked eight times, but his 71-yard bomb to Ken Burrough and a Toni Fritsch field goal kept the Oilers in contention. Houston had won three straight from Miami, but this time Earl Campbell was limited to 78 yards on 19 carries.

Miami 31, Baltimore 28

Baltimore, Sept. 27—A 665-yard aerial bombardment by former Louisiana State quarterbacks David Woodley and Bert Jones was tipped in Woodley's favor when Dolphins' placekicker Uwe von Schamann booted a 27-yard field goal with 1:02 remaining. Jones, seven years senior to Woodley, would have had almost 400 yards passing and the victory except that a 47-yard touchdown pass to Ray Butler with 31 seconds left was nullified by a holding penalty against guard Robert Pratt. Von Schamann's kick was set up by a diving catch by Duriel Harris of a 45-yard Woodley bomb. Woodley passed for 309 yards including TD passes to rookie Tom Vigorito and Nick Giaquinto. Jones countered with 357 yards passing and three TDs, two to Butler. Colts' rookie punt returner David Shula did not have an opportunity to return any of four punts by Tom Orosz.

Miami 28, New York Jets 28

Miami, Oct. 4—The Dolphins' first tie in 10 years was a wide-open, 845-yard show that ended when New York Jets' kicker Pat Leahy missed a 47-yard field-goal attempt on the last play of overtime. Dolphin wide receiver Nat Moore, snaring passes that covered 47, 52, and 45 yards, set a club record with 210 yards on seven receptions. Relief quarterback Don Strock connected with Moore for touchdown passes of six and 23 yards—the latter coming with 3:39 remaining for a 28-21 lead. But Jets' quarterback Richard Todd stunned unbeaten Miami with a 36-yard TD toss to Bobby Jones with 1:09 to play. Todd fired four TD passes including strikes of nine and 14 yards to Wesley Walker, and Todd's 28-of-39 passing accuracy led the Jets to 546 yards.

Buffalo 31, Miami 21

Orchard Park, N.Y., Oct. 12—Quarterback Joe Ferguson decimated the Dolphins' pass defense in a 31-point first half as the Bills coasted to victory before 78,576 fans and a Monday night national TV audience. Ferguson piled up 221 yards passing in the first half with touchdown strikes of 28 and 25 yards to Jerry Butler and 65 yards to running back Joe Cribbs. Another 29-yard strike from Ferguson to Frank Lewis set up a one-yard TD plunge by Roosevelt Leaks. The Dolphins registered a pulse only once, that coming on a 90-yard kickoff return by rookie Fulton Walker that cut the margin to 17-7. Quarterback Don Strock, in his only start of the year, directed a pair of 87-yard touchdown drives in the third and fourth periods. He completed 10 of 11 passes on the last drive.

Miami 13, Washington 10

Miami, Oct. 18—Two weeks after suffering two cracked ribs, quarterback David Woodley passed for 296 yards to subdue Washington in its first regular-season visit to the Orange Bowl. Woodley's 50-yard sideline heave to tight end Joe Rose set up a 25-yard field goal by Uwe von Schamann with 8:34 to play, snapping a 10-10 tie. The Dolphins killed the last four minutes on the clock with a 79-yard march to the Redskins' one-yard line, again triggered by a Woodley bomb of 54 yards to Jimmy Cefalo on a third-and-13 call. Woodley doubled the passing yardage of Redskins' quarterback Joe Theismann. Linebacker Earnie Rhone spilled fullback John Riggins for a six-yard loss on a pass play and forced the Redskins to punt with 4:23 remaining. Dolphin halfback Tony Nathan rushed 98 yards on 13 carries in a 444-yard offensive display.

Dallas 28, Miami 27

Irving, Tex., Oct. 25—In a shocking final five minutes, the Dolphins blew a 13-point lead and a chance for a winning field goal as Dallas prevailed on two touchdown passes by quarterback Danny White. It snapped a 13-game Dolphin winning streak against NFC teams. Miami forged into a 27-14 lead with 5:16 remaining on a third TD pass by David Woodley. But White countered with a 38-yard pass to Tony Hill, setting up a five-yard TD strike to Doug Cosbie. Woodley then threw his fourth interception, and White immediately found fullback Ron Springs on a 32-yard TD pass with 3:17 to play. Woodley heaved a 41-yard bomb to Duriel Harris, reaching the Cowboys' 28-yard line, but two plays later, he was intercepted by Everson Walls on an overthrow for Harris. Woodley and White combined to pass for 762 yards.

Oakland 33, Miami 17

Miami, Nov. 15—Second-year quarterback Marc Wilson passed for three touchdowns in the first half as defending Super Bowl champion Oakland built a 21-point margin. A mild comeback engineered by backup quarterback Don Strock pulled the Dolphins within 24-17, and with 2½ minutes to play, Miami cornerback Gerald Small just missed a potential game-tying interception TD. Strock completed 16 of 25 passes including a 14-yard TD to Tony Nathan, but Strock was tackled in his end zone for a two-point safety with 1:16 remaining. Wilson's scoring strikes covered 13 yards to Todd Christensen, 37 yards to Bob Chandler and one yard to Derrick Ramsey.

New York Jets 16, Miami 15

New York, Nov. 22—A stunning 11-yard touchdown pass from Richard Todd to Jerome Barkum with only 16 seconds remaining vaulted the New York Jets to victory and an AFC East first-place tie with the Dolphins at 7-4-1. Todd, playing with a fractured rib, drove the Jets 77 yards and completed seven of nine passes on the winning march. Pat Leahy kicked the decisive extra point. The Dolphins built a 12-6 halftime lead, highlighted by linebacker Larry Gordon sacking Todd for a 12-yard loss and a safety. Uwe von Schamann, who booted a 46-yard field goal in the first half, connected from 23 yards with 3:10 remaining for a 15-9 margin. The Dolphins were held to a season-low 41 net yards passing.

Miami 13, Philadelphia 10

Miami, Nov. 30—Don Strock flipped a dramatic, fourth-down touchdown pass to Duriel Harris and a fiery Dolphin defense stymied Philadelphia before the largest Monday night football audience in the 12-year history of the ABC-TV series. Uwe von Schamann delivered a winning 27-yard field goal with 64 seconds remaining. The kick was set up by Lyle Blackwood's diving interception of Eagles' quarterback Ron Jaworski, who huddled five times because of the noisy 67,797 spectators. Strock relieved David Woodley in the fourth quarter, trailing 10-3, and on a fourth-and-4 situation, Strock beat a blitz with a 17-yard TD strike to Harris. The Dolphins did not allow the Eagles a first down in their last five possessions.

Miami, Dec. 6—Elusive halfback Tony Nathan had the first 100-yard game of his three-year career, and quarterback David Woodley fired a 45-yard pass to Jimmy Cefalo to set up the go-ahead touchdown as the Dolphins regained first place in the AFC East at 9-4-1. Nathan broke gains of 24 and 22 yards in the fourth quarter and wound up with 119 yards on only 17 carries. Halfback Eddie Hill broke a 14-14 deadlock when he bounced off two tacklers on a four-yard TD pass play. Dolphin safety Mike Kozlowski scooped up a Sam Cunningham fumble and raced 25 yards for a touchdown and a 14-7 halftime edge. The Patriots finished 2-14 and fired Coach Ron Erhardt.

Miami 17, Kansas City 7

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 13—A strangulation defense led by left end Doug Betters allowed the Chiefs only four first downs and 76 yards in the second half as the Dolphins clinched a playoff berth at 10-4-1. Andra Franklin hammered out the final yard of a 44-yard touchdown drive, giving the Dolphins a 17-7 margin on the second play of the fourth quarter, and thereafter Kansas City never crossed midfield. Rookie punter Tom Orosz dashed 13 yards on a fake punt to sustain a drive that resulted in Uwe von Schamann's 39-yard field goal and a 10-7 halftime lead. Quarterback Don Strock relieved David Woodley after intermission, and Strock completed four passes on the push to Franklin's TD. Kansas City's only touchdown, a two-yard pass from Steve Fuller to Al Dixon, occurred on a mixup when the Dolphins had only 10 players on the field.

Miami 16, Buffalo 6

Miami, Dec. 19—In a winner-take-all clash for the AFC East championship, the Dolphins outmuscled Buffalo with a swarming defense that refused to yield a touchdown. An Orange Bowl throng of 72,956 fans and a national TV audience witnessed the Dolphins' fourth straight victory on their way to 11-4-1. Two interceptions by safety Mike Kozlowski in the final two minutes iced Miami's 13th straight home triumph over the Bills. Quarterback David Woodley mixed his scrambling with three pass completions on a first-quarter touchdown drive, capped by a 7-yard toss to halfback Tom Vigorito. Uwe von Schamann contributed three field goals (22, 30, 33) to run his AFC-leading mark to 24-of-31. The Dolphins played without five injured starters including halfback Tony Nathan and cornerback Don McNeal.

DOLPHINS 25-0 VS. 10 CLUBS

The Miami Dolphins have built a perfect 25-0 record against 10 clubs in the National Football League through the 1981 season. Three of those 10 clubs—Detroit, Green Bay and Tampa Bay—will be met during the 1982 season.

Those teams which have never beaten Miami are Atlanta (0-3), Chicago (0-3), Detroit (0-2), Green Bay (0-3), New Orleans (0-3), New York Giants (0-1), St. Louis (0-4), San Francisco (0-3), Seattle (0-2) and Tampa (0-1)

Miami set an NFL record with 20 consecutive victories over Buffalo from 1970 through 1979. Entering 1982, the Dolphins have beaten New England 14 straight times at the Orange Bowl and Buffalo 13 straight times at home.

VIKINGS OLD FOES

The longest-running preseason series for the Miami Dolphins was a see-saw rivalry with the Minnesota Vikings, a series which was suspended in 1982. The teams split 12 games, and the home-and-home series went 11 consecutive years from 1971 to 1981 with the initial encounter held in Tampa in 1969.

From 1971 through 1978, the home team prevailed in the Dolphins/Vikings series.

The Dolphins won 11 consecutive preseason games until the Vikings tripped them in 1977, and Miami built another 10-game preseason streak before bowing to Minnesota in 1980.

In preseason games, the Dolphins are 29-12-2 in the Orange Bowl, 18-12 on the road and 4-7-1 at neutral sites.

Raiders Sink Dolphins With 82-Yard Bomb

Oakland, Dec. 27 — Quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud.

The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, had taken a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime.

Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line.

The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field-goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

Dolphins Outlast Chiefs in Longest Game

Kansas City, Dec. 25 — Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by thumping a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-34, on Christmas Day.

The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation.

Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson made a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try.

Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 52-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

Anderson, No-Names Stytle Colts, 21-0

Miami, Jan. 2, 1972 — Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939.

Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a John Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads."

Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka.

The Colts hadn't been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

Cowboys Flatten Luckless Dolphins, 24-3

New Orleans, Jan. 16, 1972 — A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium.

Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times.

The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period.

Although it was intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in seven plays after kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

Late TD Drive Rescues Unbeaten Dolphins

Miami, Dec. 24 — On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns.

Morrall, the NFL's leading passer as he replaced injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns' 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the 8.

Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when linebacker Doug Swift intercepted quarterback Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20.

Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed, 14-13, with 8:11 to play.

Stout Defense Cages Bengals, 34-16

Miami, Dec. 23 — A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory.

Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin.

The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals for 46 and 12 yards — the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff — to make it 21-16.

Dolphins Grind Raiders With 266 Rushing

Miami, Dec. 30 — A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title.

Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead.

Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards culminating in a field goal and 40 yards ending in Csonka's third TD.

Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play.

Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

Dolphins Demolish Vikings, 24-7

Houston, Jan. 13, 1974 — Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium.

There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge.

It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line.

A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked it to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents, 85-33, in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka gained a Super Bowl record 145 yards and was named MVP.

Dream of 'Triple Crown' Shattered

Oakland, Dec. 21 — Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrested from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins.

Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining.

It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier, Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD.

The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

Oilers Jolt Erring Dolphins, 17-9

Miami, Dec. 24 — The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage and, aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC "wild-card" entries at the Orange Bowl.

Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half.

Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnest Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 11 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied.

Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect the three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

1979 AFC PLAYOFF

Steelers Blitz Dolphins in First Quarter

Pittsburgh, Dec. 30 — Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium.

Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive.

The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone.

Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter.

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

Chargers Survive Dolphins' Comeback, 41-38

Miami, Jan. 2, 1982 — A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins, 41-38, in overtime.

"The miracle that died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Chargers' quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL-record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions topped by Chargers tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards.

Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33-of-53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphin 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked—a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime.

It was the only game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

PRESS INFORMATION

Certified newspaper, radio and television representatives should address all requests for working press credentials to:

Public Relations Director

Miami Dolphins, 3550 Biscayne Boulevard, Miami 33137

The Press Gate is located between Gates 9 and 10 on the south side of the Orange Bowl, and access to press parking is NW Third Street at 15th Avenue. Credentials are left with an attendant at the Press Gate two hours before kickoff. Requests for press parking should be made to the Stadium Manager's office at 305-579-6971.

On Level 5 of the pressbox are located the radio booth for the visiting team and the position for coaches' films.

ORANGE BOWL STADIUM

The Orange Bowl has a seating capacity of 75,195 but can be expanded to more than 80,000 seats for the Super Bowl with the addition of bleachers in the east end zone. Five of the first 13 Super Bowls were played in Miami.

Prescription Athletic Turf was installed in March 1976 to replace the Poly-Turf of the previous six seasons.

The stadium was a Works Progress Administration project built in 1937 for $325,000 with a seating capacity of 25,000. Some 12,000 bleacher seats were added in 1945, and in 1948, double-decking of the north and south stands boosted capacity to 60,000. Some 7,500 seats were added in 1949 with the sale of $50 non-interest bonds, and capacity reached 68,000 in 1953. The west end zone was decked in 1968 to attain 75,000 seats, and from 1971 through 1976, bleachers in the east end zone (removed in 1977) gave a capacity of 80,045.
